REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

THE MEMBERS

THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY,

At their Twenty-second General Meeting,

May 9, 1816.

THE revolution of another year has again convened the numerous Members of this Society, united for the sole purpose of promoting the kingdom of Christ in the world. Appreciating, in some degree, the incomparable value of the gospel, as "the word of life," to which you owe all your hope of immortality, you feel constrained to exert your most vigorous efforts, in order to convey to your fellow-men that inestimable blessing which you yourselves enjoy. In pursuance of this grand object, you have cheerfully devoted to God a portion of your worldly substance, and constantly presented at the throne of grace your ardent supplications. Having entrusted to the Directors the management of your Missionary concerns, you are now assembled with the reasonable expectation of receiving from them "an account of their stewardship," which, with all readiness of mind, they will proceed to lay before you.

SOCIETY ISLANDS,

IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC OCEAN.

IT is with great satisfaction that the Directors are enabled to commence their Annual Report with a favourable account of those interesting islands, in the Southern Ocean, which first engaged the attention of this Society. For two successive years they have had the pleasure of stating that the aspect of our affairs in EIMEO, an island adjacent to Otaheite, has greatly improved. The intelligence received during the past year is still more encouraging. In a letter, dated Jan. 14, 1815, the Missionaries say, "Our congregation increases apace; our stated hearers are about three hundred, and sometimes many more." Their school also, which consists chiefly of adults, is well attended; the number of scholars was then two hundred and ninety-five. Large parties come over from Otaheite, and other islands, to hear the gospel, and to obtain instruction in the school. The number of those who have desired that their names may be inscribed among the worshippers of Jehovah exceeds two hundred, exclusive of those who have removed from Eimeo, and of others who have died in the faith.

Nor is it only in the island of Eimeo, where the Missionaries now reside, but in Otaheite, Huaheine, Ulietea, Raiatea, Tahaa, and other islands which they have occasionally visited, that the word of God has been heard and received with pleasure. Several of the chiefs have expressed a wish that their islands also should be favoured with Missionaries.

Many persons, especially in Eimeo, having openly renounced idolatry, now observe the Christian Sabbath, meet together to worship God, and are distinguished by the name of Bure Atua, or, The Praying People. This public profession has excited, as might be expected, the spirit of persecution; so that some of their houses have been burnt down, and their persons exposed to danger. Still, however, Divine Providence interposed in their favour, by inclining some of the principal inhabitants to become their protectors, who, although idolators, alleged that they were innocent people, and ought not to be injured. The number of those who, in the different islands, have openly renounced the worship of idols, cannot be less than five or six hundred, including most of the principal chiefs.

These persevering Missionaries, who have long borne the burden and heat of the day, and whose strength begins to decline, express an anxious desire to be reinforced by additional labourers. With this reasonable request the Directors most readily complied, and have sent out, favoured by free passages in Government vessels, four brethren, with their wives, to assist in the growing work required in the Society Islands; and they are preparing to send out four more, as soon as possible; for the Missionaries assure us that there is much encouragement to commence missions in several others of the Society Islands, and that it is ardently desired by the chiefs themselves.

It will be gratifying to our friends to learn, that amidst their numerous labours, the brethren have composed, in the language of the natives, a History of the Old Testament, and another of the New, which have been printed at Port Jackson; they have also composed a Catechism, including all the great principles of Christianity: and Hymns, which the people sing with great delight. It affords our brethren an ample reward for all their toils, to observe these converted pagans pouring out their souls in prayer at their social meetings, and to hear the praises of the Redeemer sung by their melodious voices. They are proceeding in the important work of translating the Scriptures; to facilitate the printing of which, a press has been sent out; one of the Missionaries now on their way was previously instructed in the art of printing, and the British and Foreign Bible Society has kindly provided paper for the intended impression.

The vessel which the brethren, under many disadvantages, have long been building, will, we hope, soon be finished; they will then be able to visit all the neighbouring islands, and preach to the people "all the words of this life;" while, by their friendly intercourse with the natives, they will promote their civilization—an object which the Directors press upon their Missionaries uniformly to keep in view.

Mr. Marsden being decidedly of opinion that religion will never flourish in the islands without the encouragement of industry among the natives, and that commerce will prove the best stimulus to industry, has long expressed his earnest wish that a small vessel might be employed for the purpose of carrying on barter with the people, by which thousands who are now idle might be rendered active and useful, while, at the same time, valuable facilities would be afforded for visiting the Missionaries, and conveying to them necessary supplies. Deeply impressed with this conviction, Mr. Marsden has purchased a small vessel, called the Active, which has already made three voyages to New Zealand on account of the Church Missionary Society, and which he proposed should sail to Otaheite in August last. Towards the support of this vessel Mr. Marsden proposed to the Directors that this Society should pay £250. per year, for two or three years; to this reasonable proposal the Directors readily acceded; yet expecting that the finishing of the vessel at Eimeo will hereafter supersede the necessity of employing any other.*

CHINA.

Mr. Morrison, our excellent Missionary in China, still occupies his important station, and pursues with unremitting diligence his studies and labours. He is not permitted publicly to preach the gospel, nor can he openly distribute the scriptures which he has translated and printed. They are, however widely circulated, especially in the Asiatic islands. The late rebellion in China has rendered the Government more jealous and suspicious than ever; so that not only the Roman Catholic religion and its professors have been opposed and persecuted, but all social meetings of a religious kind have been discouraged, lest combinations of a political nature should be formed. No edict, it should be understood, was ever issued against Mr. Morrison, or his publications in particular; the edicts formerly referred to were directed against Roman Catholic books; and probably the restriction might be applied to the suppression of the Sacred Scriptures themselves; but these were never circulated in such a way as to attract the notice of Government. Mr. Morrison wishes that an erroneous impression made on the minds of many on this head may be corrected.

^{*} It may be proper here to mention, that a generous individual has lately presented to the Society for this Mission the sum of £200. and has promised to present £500. more when the next Missionaries are prepared to sail.

Mr. Morrison is proceeding in his great work of translating the Scriptures into the language of the Chinese. During the past year he has completed and printed the book of Genesis. The book of the Psalms was expected to be finished by the close of the year. The British and Foreign Bible Society, highly appreciating the importance of Mr. Morrison's labours, have added this year to their former liberal donations to him, the sum of One Thousand Pounds. This is the third grant to the same amount which has been made by this noble institution, and the warmest thanks of this Society are certainly due to that respectable body for this additional aid.

Mr. Morrison and his colleague will now be enabled to print off, from the stereotype wooden blocks which are already formed, any number that may at any time be required, without composing the matter anew, as must be done when metal moveable types are employed; for whatever advantages the latter method may be supposed to possess, Mr. Morrison is decidedly of opinion, that for standard books, like the Scriptures, all that can be said in favour of metal stereotype, as used in England, applies with equal, if not greater force to the Chinese wooden stereotype. It affords the Directors great satisfaction to learn, that the second, or duodecimo edition of the New Testament, lately completed, and printed (as Chinese books must be) on Chinese paper, and bound up, may be afforded at the price of half a dollar, or two shillings and sixpence English.

The Directors are so deeply impressed by a sense of the vast importance and probable utility of widely diffusing the sacred Scriptures among the hundreds of millions who inhabit China, and the numerous islands of the Eastern seas, and so much encouraged by the liberal support given to Mr. Morrison and Mr. Milne by the Bible Society, that they have urged these brethren to use their utmost energies in the glorious work, promising to support them therein to the utmost of their power.

We have the pleasure of stating that Mr. Morrison's labours among his domestics have not been in vain. One man has been baptized, on a credible profession of his faith; and some others were inclined to declare themselves Christians, but were intimidated by apprehension of the consequences.

Besides these Biblical labours, Mr. Morrison is proceeding with the printing of his Chinese Dictionary, a work sanctioned by the Directors of the Hon. East India Company, whose confidence in Mr. Morrison's talents is fully evinced by their undertaking to execute this expensive work at their own cost, and sending out a press, types, and a printer to Canton for that purpose. Mr. M. has issued proposals for this publication, which we shall be thankful to our friends to circulate, for the purpose of procuring subscribers; the Company having generously given him, for his own use, the principal part of the impression.

We have pleasure in being able to state, that Mr. Morrison's Chinese Grammar, printed by the Bengal Government, is at length published.

Mr. Milne, the worthy colleague of Mr. Morrison, was remarkably successful in the acquisition of the Chinese language; and being obliged by the Portuguese to quit Macao, he visited, as was stated in our last Report, several of the Asiatic islands, especially Java, where, through the kindness of his Excellency Governor Raffles, he travelled about 1400 miles, distributing the New Testament in the Chinese language among all classes of people. By letters received from our Missionary in Batavia we learn, with pleasure, that the holy book was not only received in a friendly manner, but that many have been attentive to its sacred contents. Mr. Supper, in his excursions, has frequently met with persons who have read the New Testament, were much pleased with it, and wished for a living interpreter. Indeed, so acceptable was Mr. Milne to the Chinese inhabitants of Java, that they styled him "the Chinese Minister," and expressed a wish for his return. It is probable that before this time he has paid another visit to the island.

It will be recollected that Mr. Morrison, finding that the public preaching of the gospel is impracticable in China, that free intercourse with the natives is not permitted, and that even his continuance in the country is precarious, recommended it to the Directors to establish a mission either at Malacca or Penang. The former has been preferred, as affording a central situation, from which intercourse with China, India, Madagascar, and the Malayan Archipelago, may be readily maintained; where no restriction will be laid upon Missionary exertions; to which Missionaries from various countries might retire in case of sickness; and above all, where pious young men, whether converted Asiatics or Europeans, might receive instruction preparatory to Missionary exertions. Influenced by these and other important considerations, which had much weight with the Directors, Mr. Milne, at the urgent request of Mr. Morrison, removed to Malacca during the last summer.

Mr. Milne has composed and printed, in the Chinese language, a History of the Life and Doctrine of Jesus Christ. which, in Mr. Morrison's opinion, is highly creditable to his talents and piety. He has also commenced a monthly publication, somewhat resembling the Evangelical Magazine, in which the great doctrines of the gospel will be plainly stated, and such information communicated, as will render it interesting to the reader. Mr. Milne is greatly delighted with the arrival of Mr. Thomsen, who was sent out to assist him, and hails this event as the commencement of a new Mission. the benefits of which he hopes will hereafter be extended to all the wide regions included in the name of India beyond Ganges. He earnestly desires that more Missionaries may be sent out to him, and requests the Directors to solicit from the religious public the gift of books, classical and theological, to form a library for the Malacca mission.

JAVA.

Letters of a satisfactory nature have been received from Mr. Supper, who officiates as one of the ministers of the Dutch Church in Batavia. He has been appointed Secretary of the Java Auxiliary Bible Society, and has laudably exerted himself in the distribution of the English, Dutch, and Arabic Bibles, intrusted to his care, some of which have been sent to our Missionaries, Mr. Bruckner, at Samarang, and Mr. Kam, at Amboyna. It affords the Directors great pleasure to observe that, in this and in many other instances, the efforts of the Missionary and Bible Societies are reciprocally useful to each other; for, while the Missionaries are forwarded in their work by the Bibles they receive from the British and Foreign Bible Society, that institution is benefited by the labours of the Missionaries both in translating and distributing the scriptures.

Mr. Supper informs us that the Chinese tracts sent him by Mr. Milne, were received by the people with unspeakable gratitude, some of them bowing respectfully to the ground, and kissing the books which they received: but he adds that the Arabians, as well as the Chinese, said, "We want teachers to explain these things to us."

We rejoice to find that, notwithstanding the respectability of the station which Mr. Supper occupies, he breathes an ardent desire to be employed more immediately in Missionary labours among the heathen around him, with many of whom, as well as with the Mahometans, he has freely conversed; and has reason to believe that many of them are disposed to receive a better religion than that which they now profess. He expresses a wish that, by the appointment of a suitable successor in his church, he may be at liberty to devote himself wholly to the conversion of the heathen: he also earnestly desires, that more Missionaries may be sent out to that great and populous island, which presents an immense field for their evangelical labours.

SAMARANG,

IN JAVA, ABOUT 200 MILES FROM BATAVIA.

MR. BRUCKNER is at present one of the ministers in Samarang. He deeply laments the low state of religion among the people. They are generally ignorant of the gospel, inattentive and indifferent. He has, as yet, no evidence of the usefulness of his ministry; but he encourages himself with the hope that, after he has acquired the language of the country, he shall be able to devote himself to the proper work of a Missionary. Mr. Bruckner has visited the south-east part of Java, where he found hundreds of persons called Christians, but who, from the want of religious instruction, are deplorably ignorant. He mentions the arrival of Mr. Trout, a Baptist Missionary, who is learning the Malay language, and with whom, he says, he hopes to proceed, hand in hand, in the work of the Lord.

AMBOYNA.

Mr. Kam, who went out with Mr. Supper and Mr. Bruckner, was appointed to labour for a time at Sourabaya, where the people, professing Christianity, had long been destitute of divine ordinances. From thence he proceeded to Amboyna, the chief of the Molucca islands, where he statedly resides, and officiates as pastor of the Dutch church. There also, the people had long been in a destitute condition, the Lord's supper had not been administered for about thirteen years. Bibles and Testaments, he says, are much wanted; he is of opinion that 20,000 copies are requisite for the full supply of the people, and that they would readily be purchased by them.

Mr. Kam was supplied by Mr. Morrison with a good number of Chinese Testaments, which he has had an opportunity of distributing among the Chinese in Amboyna, and by whom they were thankfully received.

Mr. Kam is applying himself to the Malay language, and much wishes that several young men who are acquainted with it may be sent out, as he judges that there is abundant room, and occasion for many labourers.

CEYLON.

No material information has been received from Ceylon during the past year. Mr. Palm continues in the Dutch church at Columbo. Mr. Ehrardt and Mr. Read superintend some schools; but the Directors do not think it expedient to support them merely in that capacity. We rejoice to see that other Societies have turned their attention to this interesting island; and shall be glad to send more Missionaries thither from our Society, as soon as suitable persons can be obtained. It has been recently proposed to Mr. Thom, now at the Cape, to remove to Ceylon, for which station he seems to be peculiarly adapted.

INDIA.

THE Directors will now proceed to report the general state of our Missions in India—that populous region of the earth which, on all accounts, claims our special regard; and to which the Directors, during the last year, have paid particular attention, by considerably increasing the number of the Missionaries.

BENGAL.

Too long has the northern part of India been neglected by us; not indeed for want of inclination to send Missionaries thither, but for want of suitable labourers, in addition to those whose assistance was necessary in the stations before established. About three years ago, Mr. May was permitted to settle at Chinsurah, a town on the west side of the river Hooghly, about twenty-two miles north of Calcutta. Here he applied himself with diligence to that work for which he has peculiar talents—the instruction of children. In our last Report it was stated that he had formed three or four schools in Chinsurah and Chandernagore, and that his method of conducting them was highly approved by many European gentlemen who had visited them; it was also suggested, that his plan of instruction, when matured, might possibly be generally adopted in that populous country. We have now the pleasure to state that this expectation is realized; and that Mr. May has been encouraged to establish in that very populous neighbourhood twenty schools, containing about one thousand six hundred and fifty-one children, among whom are two hundred and fifty-eight sons of Brahmins. These schools he regularly superintends; and in so doing, receives encouragement and support from the regular authorities of the country. Mr. May having the prospect of extending his operations still more widely, earnestly desires that one or two able persons, possessing a Missionary spirit, may be speedily sent out as additional superintendants. The Directors are happy to say, that they have already engaged for that purpose one who is strongly recommended to them, not only by his minister, but by his zeal in similar services in the metropolis.

It was with peculiar pleasure that the Society accepted the services of Mr. Henry Townley, whose ardent zeal in the Missionary cause induced him to relinquish his ministerial engagements at Paddington, where his labours met with great acceptance, and where his prospects of comfort and success were unusually inviting. He is associated with Mr. Keith, one of the students from Gosport, with whom he lately sailed for Calcutta, which may justly be styled the metropolis of the East: where, in a variety of ways, there is ample scope for the exercise of their talents; and where, we trust, in addition to fellow-labourers of the Establishment, and of other denominations, they will be rendered abundantly useful, as instruments of extending the kingdom of Christ among the Hindoos and Mahometans.

MADRAS.

For a long time the Directors have been earnestly desirous of gratifying the wishes, and strengthening the hands of Mr. Loveless at Madras, by sending out an additional labourer. With great satisfaction they have just dispatched for that station Mr. Knill, formerly a student at Axminster, and recently at Gosport, whose disposition and talents, they trust, are well adapted to that important post, and of whose conduct as a Missionary they indulge the most pleasing expectations.

Mr. Loveless mentions in his last letter, that he had 75 boys in the Missionary Free School, and that he had the prospect of forming a female school on the same plan. The arrival of Mr. Knill will probably enable him to adopt Mr. May's improved plan, and to extend his operations in like manner.

GANJAM.

LITTLE of importance has occurred at Ganjam, since the last Report. Mr. Lee's ill-health has sometimes been such as to interrupt his labours; but when he wrote last he appeared to be completely restored. His ministry is attended by a considerable number of persons with apparent seriousness; but he laments the want of decisive evidence of success. He proceeds with his school, in which there are 24 native children; but on account of the general dread of being made Christians, he has not yet been able to introduce the reading of the Scriptures. Mr. Lee also attends once a week at the hospital, to instruct our sick and dying countrymen, many of whom he finds hardened by sin, and in a state of almost heathen darkness. He is still proceeding with his translation of the book of Genesis into the Telinga language. He much wishes for the assistance of another Missionary.

VIZAGAPATAM.

This important station has had to struggle with many difficulties. The death of those able and excellent Missionaries Cran and Des Granges, after having acquired the Telinga language, was a heavy loss. Since that time, Messrs. Gordon, Lee, and Pritchett, have laboured assiduously to support the mission: but Mr. Lee removed to Ganjam, and Mr. Gordon has been repeatedly attacked by a liver complaint, which has obliged him to take two voyages in hope of recovery; and there is reason to fear that he will be under the necessity of relinquishing the mission, at least for a time. It has pleased God also to remove by death Mrs. Gordon, who was a truly prous, amiable, and useful person. She died November 25, 1814, in her thirty-fourth year, after an illness of thirteen days; but she departed "enjoying the peace of the righteous, the support of the gospel, and the anticipation of glory," leaving an affectionate husband and four young children to lament her loss.

Mr. Pritchett writes, that he is proceeding as usual in his work, but is not favoured with that visible success which he desires. He has baptised one woman, who appears to have been turned from her vain conversation to serve the living God, and to seek salvation through his dear Son. Some progress, though with difficulty, is made in the school; the average attendance is about fifty. A new school has been opened in a neighbouring village; but the people are terrified at the idea of becoming Christians. Under the present circumstances of this mission, it cannot be expected that great progress should be made in the work of translation; yet Mr. Pritchett is proceeding therein as speedily as he is able.

The Directors, wishing to strengthen this mission, sent out, in the Spring of 1815, Mr. Dawson, one of the Missionary Students at Gosport, who has joined Mr. Pritchett, and with Anandarayer, the converted Brahmin, will proceed with renewed vigour in their important work.

BELLARY:

WE are happy to hear that Mr. Hands's health is reestablished, and that he is enabled to persevere in his missionary work. He cannot, he says, gratify us with an account of the poor Hindoos around him having openly embraced the gospel; yet, he is persuaded that many are convinced of its excellence and divinity, and are desirous of becoming better acquainted with it. The gospels in the language of the country, together with Catechisms, have been extensively circulated, and have excited so much attention, that scarcely a day passes without several persons calling upon him for books, and making enquiries.

Mr. Hands occasionally visits the temples of the Heathen, at the seasons of their religious festivals, when he embraces the opportunity of distributing among them the word of life, and converses with them on its contents. On a long journey, he visited the native schools in the towns and villages, addressed the children, and supplied them with books, which in general were eagerly and thankfully received; and many heard, with attention, the glad tidings of the gospel. We trust that these truly evangelical labours will not be fruitless.

Mr. Hands is assisted by Mr. Taylor, formerly of Madras; and in the course of a few months will, we trust, be further encouraged by the arrival of Mr. Reeve, one of the Missionary Students, who, with several other labourers for India, has just sailed in the ship Moira, Captain Kemp.

TINEVELLEY COUNTRY.

Our information from Mr. Ringletaube has lately been very scanty. We have however learned, with concern, that the state of his health has been so unpromising, that he entertained serious thoughts of relinquishing his mission, and resigning it to other hands. The Directors, unwilling to abandon a station which they think may be occupied to great advantage, as there are six congregations which Mr. Ringletaube and his Catechists have been accustomed to visit, as well as several schools, determined to send out two brethren to this district; accordingly Mr. Mead and Mr. Render. both from Gosport, have embarked for this purpose, in the ship just mentioned. It is pleasant to reflect on the agreeable circumstances under which six of our brethren have gone forth, enjoying not only the company of each other, but of several others who have the same glorious object in view, and under the protection of a Captain, who feels a delight in conveying so many servants of Christ to their destined ports. The Moira will, doubtless be followed throughout her voyage by the sincere prayers of the whole Society.

MAURITIUS.

RECENT advices from Mr. Le Brun are more encouraging than the former. He says "Our little congregation increases, notwithstanding all opposition; and one proof of their sincerity is, that they bear with patience the insults of the multitude, who point at them as monsters, because they have changed their religion." He hopes soon to form them into a regular society; but proceeds with prudent caution. His Sunday School prospers, and more than fifty of the children make rapid progress in the Catechism.

SURAT.

THE mission to Surat, which was for many years in the contemplation of this Society, but which has been hitherto retarded by a variety of impediments, is at length, by the goodness of God, commenced. Mr. Skinner, and Mr. Fyvie, Students at Gosport, arrived at Bombay on the 9th of August last, after an agreeable passage of less than four months. They were received in the most friendly manner by the Governor, Sir Evan Nepean. Mr. Skinner proceeded in a few weeks to Surat, where he arrived September 16, after a passage of four days, and took up his abode with Mr. Aratoon, the Baptist Missionary, who rejoiced to receive a fellow-labourer in the same arduous work. He apprehends that no obstacle will be thrown in the way of their Missionary efforts. Mr. Fyvie was expected to follow Mr. Skinner as soon as domestic circumstances would permit. We doubt not that both these brethren will apply themselves with great diligence to the acquisition of the Guzzerat or the Hindoostanee language, both which are spoken at Surat, the former by the Hindoos, the latter by the Mahometans.

Our brethren speak in very respectful terms of the American Missionaries at Bombay, Messrs. Hall and Newel, and regret the return of Mr. Nott to America on account of his health.

LASCARS.

The Committee, who have paid a Christian attention to the Lascars and Chinese sailors in London, mentioned, in our last Report, their satisfaction with the character of Golam Alli, formerly a Mahometan, who had just been baptised on the profession of his faith; we are sorry to report that he soon after died; but it is consolatory to add, that he departed, relying on Jesus Christ for salvation. The Committee also entertain a good hope concerning Abdallah, who was useful in teaching the Arabic and other languages, and in reading the Scriptures to his countrymen. Before his return to the East, he prefessed his belief that Jesus is the Son of God, and the Saviour of the world. Mr. Townley received some lessons from him in the Bengallee language; and the Rev. Mr. Atley, who has been assiduously attentive to the Lascars, derived from Abdallah, the first rudiments of the Hindoostanee, in which he has since made so much improvement as to have been able to assist Mr. Keith in learning it: and we hope will hereafter be very serviceable to others of the Missionary Students intended for the East. Mr. Fyvie, now at Surat, observes, that as the Hindoostanee is spoken by all the people in business on the Malabar coast, it would be beneficial to Missionaries going thither, to pay attention to the rudiments of that language in England.

A Portugueze Lascar, named Reed, declared before his death that his first religious impressions were received in the Society's house at Stepney. During the past year considerable interest has been excited among the Chinese in London, who gladly received and read Mr. Morrison's tract and catechism; had several opportunities of reading his translation of the New Testament, and expressed great pleasure in perusing the fourteenth chapter of St. Johu's gospel. The Committee were favoured with a number of Portugueze Testaments by the Bible Society, with valuable Oriental books by the East London Auxiliary Bible Society, and a quantity of tracts by this Society, which they distributed with advantage.

The Lascar Committee, who for the sake of economy, have relinquished the house at Stepney, have no intention of abandoning their primary object, of tendering moral and religious instruction to these poor strangers.

SOUTH AFRICA.

THE Directors will next proceed briefly to report the substance of that ample and delightful information which they have received from the numerous stations occupied by our Missionaries in South Africa. But they cannot enter upon this, without expressing their gratitude to the God of all grace, for the wenderful pouring out of his Spirit in that country, and making many who were deemed "the offscouring of all things," and scarcely ranked among human beings, "fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God."

I. STATIONS WITHIN THE COLONY OF THE CAPE.

IT may be proper, in the first place, to mention CAPE TOWN, though not strictly a missionary station, as it is the port at which all our African Missionaries disembark, and where they generally remain for a time, in order to procure the articles necessary for their accommodation in the interior.

Mr. Thom, who left England with Mr. Campbell in 1812, with the intention of proceeding to India, was induced, by a variety of occurrences, to continue for a season at the Cape; where, finding his labours among the British soldiery and others very acceptable and useful, he has ever since continued. He has been highly serviceable to our Missionaries for the East, who have touched there; as well as to the African Missionaries: and, having acquired the Dutch language, he has been useful in various parts of the colony which he has occasionally visited, and to the slaves and others in Cape Town. But as a permanent residence at the Cape was not the original intention of his mission, and as he has signified his readiness to proceed to any part of the East, the Directors have written to him, expressing their wish that he should remove to Ceylon, where there is ample scope for the most active exercise of his useful talents.

STELLENBOSCH,

(TWENTY-SIX MILES NORTH-EAST FROM CAPE TOWN.)

At Stellenbosch, Mr. Bakker continues to preach to the slaves and Hottentots, for whose accommodation a larger place has lately been erected. He is well attended, and many have reason to be thankful for his labours.

An Auxiliary Society has been formed here, by whose liberality Mr. Bakker is wholly supported, and the overplus of the subscriptions, amounting to 400 rix-dollars (about £80.) is devoted to the further extension of the Gospel by our Society.*

The slaves also, on hearing a part of our Report for the year 1814, determined to devote their mite to the Missionary treasury, and have already contributed about 60 rix-dollars.

Mr. Kramer also preaches to the Hottentots and slaves, residing among the Boors in the extensive drosdy (or district) of Tulbagh, and we believe is useful among them.

RODEZAND, IN TULBAGH,

(FORTY MILES NORTH OF THE CAPE.)

Mr. Ariel Vos preaches regularly to the Hottentots and slaves. Mr. De Lang, Secretary of the Society there, says, "We cannot help expressing our joy on account of the great increase of the heathen who attend the preaching of the gospel in this place. This circumstance redoubles the efforts of our brother Vos, whose labour, through the grace of God, is not in vain; as the fruits thereof are already reaped, by which we are encouraged to proceed joyfully in the work of the Lord."

It is the wish of the people to be formed into a church, and that Mr. Vos should be ordained their pastor.

CALEDON,

(ABOUT 120 MILES EAST OF CAPE TOWN.)

Mr. Seidenfaden, and Mr. Wimmer are joint labourers at this place, to which about 400 Hottentots are attached. We rejoice to hear that the affairs of this settlement are in a prosperous state. Twenty adults have been baptized in the course of the past year, and twenty more are candidates for that ordinance. Mr. Wimmer assured Mr. Read that he never saw the work flourish so much, even at Bethelsdorp. It was formerly the wish of Mr. Wimmer to return to Bethelsdorp, and Mr. Read sent a waggon to convey him thither; but so strong was the attachment of the people to his ministry, that they would not suffer him to depart, unless they also might go with him.

^{*} A gentleman in Africa has lately bequeathed the sum of 10,000 florins to the Stellenbosch Society, the interest of which is to be applied by them to Missionary purposes.

At the recommendation of Government, the British system of education has been introduced here, and a school-room has been erected. There are about fifty children in the school, many of whom can read the Bible, and have learned many hymns, which they sing in every evening service. Some of the people have begun to build themselves brick houses. They are also erecting a cattle krall of brick, 120 feet long and 60 wide. Thus we perceive that religion and civilization are advancing hand in hand.

HIGH KRALL,

(Usually called Hooge Krall, in the Drosdy, or District of George, about 300 miles east of the Cape.)

MR. PACALT continues to labour at this place, and not without good effect. His ministry is attended by two or three hundred people; but many of them, being either slaves, or servants to the farmers, cannot attend regularly. He has nearly 100 in the school, many of whom are adults, and who are able to read the Bible; and several of them can write, as well as repeat hymns and portions of scripture. He has a large garden, and a field, which the people assist him to cultivate; and they are rewarded for their labour by partaking of its produce. We are glad to find that corn and vegetables flourish in this settlement; and that Mr. Pacalt enjoys the good will of the Landrost, who sometimes attends his church. This gentleman has always been friendly to our Missionaries, and deserves the warmest thanks of this Society.

Mr. Pacalt performed a very useful service to our brethren intended for Latakkoo, by travelling to the Cape (about 300 miles) to meet them on their arrival; and by conducting them to the place of his residence, where they were kindly received, and hospitably entertained; after which, suitable oxen and guides being sent from Bethelsdorp, they proceeded to that place.

The brethren, who continued at High Krall about three weeks, express the high degree of delight they enjoyed, in witnessing the power of religion on the hearts of the poor Hottentots; and in hearing them, in their social meetings, pour out their souls in prayer for this Society—" for their good friends in the far land, who thought of them, and sent a teacher of his word among them."—" I think," says one of the brethren who gives us this account, that the Hottentots may indeed be said, to "strive to enter in at the strait gate;" and though you, my venerable fathers in England, often speak of the blessed effect of the gospel among he heathen, yet, to form an adequate idea of it, you must come hither and see it.

BETHELSDORP,

(ABOUT 600 MILES EAST OF THE CAPE.)

This settlement is rightly named; it has proved, to hundreds of souls, no other than a "Beth-el."——" the house of God, and the gate of heaven." When we review the intelligence received from this highly favoured spot within the last two years, we are constrained to cry "What hath God wrought!" for, in no place under the patronage of this Society, and at no period since its commencement, have such wonders of mercy been displayed.

It would occupy too much of the time of this meeting to present even an outline of that extensive information with which Mr. Read and Mr. Messer have furnished the Directors. Suffice it to say, in a summary manner, that about 1200 people belong to this settlement. Since its commencement, 442 adults have been baptised; 300 of whom have been added to the church during the last year. Nearly fifty children in the school are able to read the Bible, to write, and to cast accounts. The school is conducted according to the British system.

During the past year, the Hottentots belonging to this settlement have paid taxes to Government, to the amount of nearly £800; they have contributed to the funds of this Society £120; they are now building, at their own expence, a school-room and a printing-office, under the same roof (70 feet by 80); and they make collections for the poor every Lord's day, the annual amount of which is more than £40. Besides which, they send out into the surrounding country a number of itinerants, by whom the knowledge of the gospel is happily diffused.

The progress of civilization in this settlement, of which we shall present some account, must afford great pleasure to every Philanthropist; but to the Christian, it is gratifying in the highest degree to know that by the blessing of Heaven on the exertions of this Society, and by the instrumentality of our faithful Missionaries, hundreds of immortal souls are enlightened in the knowledge of the truth—are become genuine Christians, and partakers of the common salvation. The grateful feelings of these converted heathen, brought by the gospel into a new world, may be conceived of by the following specimen, the honest effusion of a poor Hottentot at one of their public meetings, (June 11, 1815.)

"We are all Hottentots. We never had a house. We never were considered as human beings. We never were allowed to look into a farmer's house; but, to-day we are here, sitting together in a large white house (the place of worship). We never had a waggon; and now there are more than twenty waggons at Bethelsdorp belonging to us Hottentots! Look at the women! they never had any decent clothes; now you see them sitting among us in white and various colours. We never had the honour of knowing any thing of God or his word; but now we can read and write:
—and the greatest thing which God has favoured us with, is, his sending to us poor Hottentots, his servants, who daily explain to us his holy word."

Then, with many tears, he cried out, "Is not this altogether the grace of God! love of God! mercy of God! men, b iethren, Hottentots! praise the Lord God Almighty!"

THEOPOLIS,

(In Albany, formerly called Zuurland, about sixty miles beyond Bethelsdorp, N. E.)

HERE Mr. Ulbricht, who was several years at Bethelsdorp, now labours, and with considerable success. A concern about religion, similar to that noticed at Bethelsdorp, has appeared here. This settlement was threatened by a late insurrection in the neighbourhood, but which was soon happily suppressed. Mr. Read informs us, that the report of the proceedings at this station is very interesting, but it is not yet come to hand.

II. STATIONS BEYOND THE LIMITS OF THE COLONY.

CAFFRARIA,

(TO THE NORTH EAST OF BETHELSDORP.)

In this extensive country, supposed to contain 100,000 inhabitants, Dr. Van der Kemp earnestly wished to establish a mission; and with that view, resided in it many months, but was at length obliged to retire; after which he established the mission at Bethelsdorp. For some time past, however, many of the natives have expressed an earnest desire that Missionaries may be sent to them; and invitations to that effect have repeatedly been sent to Bethelsdorp. Our brethren, ready and glad to comply with the request, have only been waiting for the necessary permission from Government, which in consequence of the late war had been deferred, but which, when they wrote last, they were in full expectation of receiving.

It should seem that individuals of the Caffre nation who had occasionally visited Bethelsdorp, and heard the gospel there, returned to their country, and spread a favourable report. A woman, particularly, took a Bible with her, which she reads amidst groups of attentive people. A native also, of singular character, goes from place to place, inviting the attention of the people to religion; declaiming against war; and exhorting his countrymen and the king himself, to pray to the true God. Such effects are already produced, that a large kraal is distinguished by the name of Praying Caffres. They have sent Mr. Read word, that when he comes, he need only light a fire by way of signal on his side of the Great Fish River, and they will immediately cross to conduct him over. Lately, when a British officer had occasion to go into Caffraria, and it was reported that a Missionary had arrived, such was the joy excited, that the Caffres assembled from every quarter to welcome him.

Mr. Read, judging this to be a special call of Providence, by no means to be disregarded, is making preparation for the commencement of the mission. Mr. Williams, one of the Missionaries intended for Latakkoo, has volunteered his services which Mr. Read has thankfully accepted, not doubting of the approbation of the Directors in a case of such urgency. Mr. Williams will be accompanied by Tzaatzoo, the son of a Caffre chief, who resided several years at Bethelsdorp, and who, with Mr. W. is qualified to promote the arts of civilization among the people, as well as to promulgate the gospel of Christ.

(THORNBERG, OR VANDERWALT'S FOUNTAIN.)

IN THE BUSHMEN'S COUNTRY,

About five days' journey north of Graaff Reinet.

This Mission, recently commenced by Mr. Smit, has laboured under great discouragements, partly from the want of provisions, and partly from a suspicion in the minds of the natives that the Missionaries wished to betray them into the hands of the Boors, between whom and themselves, a mortal enmity has long existed. We trust, however, that they are now satisfied of the purity of the motives which brought the Missionaries among them. Mr. Smit has been assisted by Mr. Corner, originally of Demerary, but late of Bethelsdorp; and Jan Goeyman, a converted Hottentot. Mr. Corner is qualified by his mechanical knowledge to assist them in civilization, and Mrs. Smit has begun to teach the Bushmen's girls to knit and sew. We indulge the hope of hearing of the success of our brethren in this great and dangerous enterprize, among some of the most rude and savage of the human race. The establishment of a mission among them will be an incalculable benefit to the country, and especially to Missionaries and others who have occasion to travel through it.

GRIQUA TOWN,

IN THE COUNTRY OF THE GRIQUAS,

NORTH OF THE GREAT RIVER.

Ar this important station, which is the most distant of all our African settlements, Mr. Anderson and Mr. Janz have laboured many years, and with no small degree of success.

It is with deep concern that the Directors have now to report the death of their pious and faithful Missionary, Mr. Janz. In our last, we stated the death of Mrs. Janz; there is reason to think that his attention to her, during her illness, and his grief on account of her death, were the means of hastening his own dissolution; he was carried off by a rapid decline. Mr. Janz was a man of an excellent spirit; eminent for faith, self-denial, and holy zeal for God; an active, faithful disinterested Missionary. The people placed the greatest confidence in him. He visited them from house to house, and he had generally some of them at his own for instruction. His zeal continued to the end; and during the last days of his illness, he urged Mr. Saus, who providentially visited Griqua Town at that time, frequently to preach Christ to the people; and wished to arise from his bed, to ring the bell himself, for calling them together. He died, after being two hours almost continually in prayer.

In the last letter that Mr. Janz wrote, he stated, that the four native brethren, set apart to Missionary work at Graaff Reinet, were exceedingly zealous in visiting all the kralls of Corannas and Bushmen. Mr. Janz had lately baptized a number of persons, in Mr. Anderson's absence, and many more were looking forward to that ordinance. He pleaded strongly for an increase of the number of Missionaries at that place.

Mr. Helm, who laboured with Mr. Saas at Bethesda, having been obliged to leave that place on account of his health, has now joined Mr. Anderson, at Griqua Town, to supply the place of our deceased brother.

An Auxiliary Missionary Society has been established in Griqua Town; the subscribers to which, having no money, (for money is utterly unknown in that part of the world) have contributed property which is to be sold for the benefit of the Society. The following is a list of the subscriptions:

Elephants' teeth, 30 pounds. One Ox.

Nine young Bulls. Twenty-three Sheep.
Four Heifers. Five Goats.

To remedy the inconvenience sustained by the people (who have now made considerable progress in civilization,) by their want of a circulating medium, the Directors are now procuring for them a coinage of silver tokens.

Mr. Read, considering Griqua Town as a central station of great importance, is of opinion that a printing press should be established there; a measure which the Directors highly approve.

BETHESDA.

(Formerly called Orlam's Krall, on the Great River, about mid-way between Griqua Town and Pella.)

Mr. Saas and Mr. Helm have laboured at this station; where many, we trust, have been converted to God. More than 80 had been baptised in the course of one year. Mr. Helm having been obliged, on account of his health, to remove, another Missionary must, as soon as possible, be sent to Bethesda. In the mean time Mr. Saas has agreed to remain among the Corannas, and even remove with them from place to place, as occasion may require.

GREAT NAMAQUA COUNTRY.

KLIP FOUNTAIN,

(About two day's journey north of the Great River, and not far from the former station called Warm Bath.)

MR SCHMELEN, on his return from the Damara country, which he went to explore, fell in with a krall of Namaquas, some of whom had formerly resided at the Warm Bath. At first they were greatly alarmed at the appearance of himself and his people, and hid themselves behind the rocks and bushes, being apprehensive of the approach of Africaner, whose name was terrific throughout all that country. finding that it was a peaceful Missionary who had arrived, they expressed the highest degree of joy; and having heard him preach, they, with Flemerius their chief, at their head, earnestly entreated him to continue among them. Mr. Schmelen would have declined this, as he wished to begin a mission elsewhere; but the people would take no denial; they would not suffer him to leave them; they detained him almost by force; he was therefore constrained to abide with them, and his compliance filled their hearts with joy.

It was not long before he also had reason to rejoice in this determination. Many persons received the word, accompanied by the power of the Holy Spirit. A concern about religion became general; and when the last account came away, he had baptized twenty persons on a credible profession of their faith in Jesus.

The business of civilization, the constant concomitant of evangelical religion, immediately commenced. The Missionary began a school, in which he had soon 140 children, who learned to read and write; but having no paper, a sheep-skin was substituted, on which fine sand was spread, and a reed served the purpose of a pen. The particulars of the awakenings here are some of the most remarkable that have occurred in our knowledge.

It is absolutely necessary that another Missionary should be sent to the help of Mr. Schmelen as soon as possible.

AFRICANER'S KRALL.

Seldom have the Directors had occasion to record circumstances so remarkable as those which have occurred at this place. Every Member of the Society will recollect the dispersion of the people who resided at Warm Bath, which was at that time one of our most flourishing stations. The terror of Africaner's name put a period, for a season, to our pleasing expectations concerning that congregation.

When Mr. Campbell was in Africa, he conceived that the heart of Africaner might possibly be won by that kindness which the gospel recommends even towards an enemy. He therefore wrote a conciliatory letter to him, accompanied with a present. But for a long time, no man could be found hardy enough to venture to Africaner's krall to present it. At length the letter reached his hands; and its contents were soon after seconded by a visit from our late most excellent Missionary, Mr. Christian Albrecht. Peace was happily established; and Africaner not only consented that a Missionary should come, but was very desirous of it, and pleaded Mr. Campbell's promise of sending one.

Mr. Ebner, our Missionary at Pella, (so called, because it proved a refuge to the dispersed from Warm Bath, like the ancient Pella to the fugitive Christians from Jerusalem,) judging that it was a very important duty to endeavour to maintain peace with Africaner, by residing with him; and that it might lead eventually to the re-establishment of the mission at the Warm Bath, and the formation of other settlements in the country, felt inclined to remove to Africaner's place, though not without great inconvenience and perhaps risk. He proposed it, therefore, to his congregation, who, though strongly attached to their minister, generously gave him up on this urgent occasion. Mr. Ebner accordingly removed, and he had soon cause to be thankful. The people of the krall received him joyfully; they have attended his ministry with affection; many seem to be seriously impressed, and among fourteen persons whom he has baptized, are two sons of Africaner. That chief himself expresses contrition on account of the enormities of his past life, and a hope in the mercy of God through Jesus Christ.

PELLA.

IN THE SOUTH (OR LITTLE) NAMAQUA COUNTRY.

At this place, it may be truly said, the word of the Lord has had free course, and has been glorified. Here Mr. Aibrecht aud Mr. Ebner laboured with great success. In a letter, dated May 24, 1815, Mr. Ebner says, " You will rejoice with me when you hear of the conversion of so many sinners, who fly in great numbers to our beloved Jesus, like doves to their windows. O could you witness the earnest desires of these poor people to be saved from their sins by Christ; could you hear our people, old and young, how earnestly they pray behind the bushes, your hearts would not only rejoice. but you would be ready to take out all your Bank notes, uncounted, and throw them into the Missionary treasury." than fifty persons have been added to the church, and there appears to be a general concern among the people, both old and young. Several native preachers have been recommended and sent out in different directions to Warm Bath, Steinkopff, and other places.

But here, again, our joy is checked by the recollection of another heavy loss, sustained by the death of our most beloved and excellent Missionary, Mr. Christian Albrecht. His health had, for a long time, been in a declining state; and it was thought expedient that he should repair to Cape Town for medical advice. He accordingly came, and a few days after his arrival, while engaged in forwarding the brethren for Latakkoo, and when in the act of writing a letter on the Society's business, he fell down in his chamber and expired. His remains were deposited by the side of our venerated Van der Kemp. Mr. Read, in a letter on this subject, says, "Late events in Africa have been both glorious and grievous. The Lord has graciously succeeded the labours of the Society, by their Missionaries, in a signal manner. New trophies have been given to Emmanuel, which will be treasured up in heaven, and be unto him for an everlasting name. But death, as if envious at the progress of the Missionaries, is cutting off our dear brethren, one after another. O that the Lord would sheath his sword and spare the residue!"

"The loss of brother Albrecht is great indeed; for I scarcely knew his equal. His chief excellencies were, a burning zeal for the conversion of the heathen, ardent love to their souls, and self-denial, in a very high degree; and these are the chief qualifications requisite for Missionaries in Africa."

The station at Pella, thus deprived of both its Missionaries, will now be supplied by Mr. Bartlett, a Missionary accepted in Africa, and Mr. Marquard, of Holland, who lately arrived at the Cape.

It is here proper to mention, that the brethren Evans, Barker, Williams, and Hamilton, intended for the mission to Latakkoo, after staying awhile at the Cape, proceeded by High Krall to Bethelsdorp, where they were most kindly received; two of these Missionaries, with their wives, have since gone forward to Griqua Town, and will be followed by Mr. Barker, accompanied, we trust, by Mr. Read, who intends, on his way, to introduce Williams and Tzuatzoo to the Caffres. Cur hearts go with them all, crying—" Save now, we beseech thee O Lord: O Lord, we beseech thee, send now prosperity."

Before we close the African branch of the Report, it will will be proper to state, in a few words, the progress of civilization, more especially as our brethren have been injuriously charged with the neglect of it.

From a report just received of the settlement at Bethelsdorp, for the year 1815, it appears that the number of inhabitants, including the present residents, the people engaged in cutting and sawing timber, and the Hottentots now serving the farmers, amounts to 1170,—the number of cattle and sheep, 2,672: and the number of waggons, $4. More than 30 men are constantly employed in bewing and sawing timber, which is sent by sea to Cape Town, and for which return is made in various articles of utility. Much timber is also carried to Witenhage and Graafi Reinet. From 12 to 20 men are employed in getting bark; others in bunning lime; and others in carrying salt into the interior.—There are also two wheelwrights, six carpenters, two shoe-makers, two brick-layers, several brick-makers, one butcher, one tanner, three thatchers. Many of the women assist their husbands in gardening, making matts, baskets, blankets of sheep skins, &c. Thirty girls are daily taught to knit; and there are 18 girls in the sewing school, who make shirts for sale. Upon the whole the prospect of success in Africa is encouraging in a very high degree; and although several more Missionaries are required, and the increase of expence is considerable, yet, as Mr. Read suggests, it is hoped that with some exertion, Africa will soon bear its own expences, except the equipment, passage, and first settlement of the Missionaries.

NORTH AMERICA AND THE WEST INDIES.

MR. SPRATT, who has resided some time at Quebec, has lately visited the United States to obtain pecuniary assistance for building a chapel. The Directors have informed him that if he continues at Quebec, as the pastor of the congregation, his support must be derived from them; but that they will gladly employ him as their Missionary, if he should be inclined to leave his present situation.

Mr. Cox was about to leave Johnstoun District, when he last wrote, and we are not exactly informed in what part of the country he is now labouring. He has been partly supported by the people, but has been assisted by donations from this Society.

From Mr. Smart, of Elizabeth Town, Upper Canada, we have not lately received any information.

At Trinidad, Mr. Adam continues to labour as usual, and not without some good effect; but the Directors are sorry to say that this station is too expensive to be continued on the present plan. It has long appeared to them very desirable, not to say necessary, that one of the Directors should, if possible, visit our Missionary stations in the West Indies, as Mr. Campbell, with so much advantage, visited those in Africa, and for a similar purpose. They are of opinion that great improvement might be made by judicious regulations; and that many of the Planters may, by personal application, be induced to engage for the support of pious mechanics as the instructors of their slaves; and that not only the present stations might be rendered less burdensome to the Society, but that new stations might be found which should require little or no pecuniary support from Eagland.

Mr. Wray was lately informed by the poor negroes in Demerary, that they are looking out for a minister in every ship that arrives.

The Directors are concerned to state that greatly as they have desired to send a preacher to Le Resouvenir, formerly the promising station of Mr. Wray, they have not yet been able to meet with a person altogether suitable for it, but they are anxious to find such a one. They hoped that some of our brethren in the ministry would have been able to select out of their congregations some pious intelligent diligent men, such as are qualified to be useful in Sunday Schools, or in village preaching, who would gladly devote themselves to the instruction of the poor negroes; a few such persons, may be very usefully employed in the West Indies.

Mr. Wray remains in the neighbouring colony of Berbice; his school is on the increase, and a great number of poor free children, as well as of the slaves, learn to read; many adults also come to read occasionally. Many girls belonging to the Crown estates learn to sew, under the care of Mrs. Wray. About a year ago, he baptized eight persons, who have since conducted themselves as becomes Christians; and at Christmas last he baptized eight more; four had belonged to the school, the rest were old people. It was a very solemn season. On the 31st of December he administered the Lord's Supper for the first time in Berbice; eleven negroes communicated. Mr. Wray rejoices to see a church, however small, formed among the negroes in Berbice.

Mr. Davies, at George Town, Demerary, is attended by a great number of negroes, many of whom discover, in the whole of their conduct, the powerful effects of the gospel. It is much to the honour of religion that among the negroes who have been punished for dishonest or refractory behaviour, there has not been an instance of one who attended the chapel. The moral conduct of the people is much improved; Mr. Davies has lately married sixty couples of them, nearly half of whom came from about twenty miles up the river. Mr. Elliot, (formerly at Tobago) is at present at George Town, and preaches in a distant part of it, to many who, it is said, cannot conveniently attend at the chapel.

In addition to the support of those missions which have already been mentioned, and which are under the immediate patronage of this Society, sums have occasionally been voted to other Societies which have the same object in view. During the last year, the Directors have voted to the Church of the United Brethren, at Sarepta, the sum of £300, for the purpose of renewing their missions to the Kalmucks. Two Missionaries have thus been enabled to commence their labours among that people.

They have also granted £100, to the New York Missionary Society, to assist them in sending Missionaries to the Indians on the border of their territories.

They have likewise voted to the new Missionary Institution at Basle, in Switzerland, the sum of £200, to assist and encourage them in its establishment.

SEMINARY.

There are now in the Missionary Seminary at Gosport, sixteen students, who are pursuing, under the direction of our highly esteemed brother the Rev. Mr. Bogue, appropriate studies, preparatory to their entering upon the great work of preaching the gospel to the heathen. They are well reported of by their tutor, as men truly devoted to God, and likely to become useful Missionaries.

We are concerned to state, that Mr. Stephens, a very promising young man, has been removed by death, during the last year; and the studies of another are at present suspended by illness.

It is with pleasure we state, that the labours of several of the students among the French prisoners, at the prisons and prison ships, were attended with a divine blessing.

There are also several young men to whom it is not intended to give the usual term for education at Gosport, who are committed to the care of some worthy ministers in the country, that they may receive useful instruction to qualify them for the stations which they may probably occupy.

AMIDST the occasions of congratulation, which we have the pleasure this day to present to the Society, we are under the painful necessity of stating a circumstance deeply to be regretted by us all. We advert to the resignation of our highly valued Treasurer, Joseph Hardcastle, Esq. who, from the commencement of this institution, has, with no less advantage to the Society than honour to himself, fulfilled the duties of that important office. His intended removal from the metropolis, rendered desirable by the state of his health, has induced him to relinquish his responsible office, the duties of which he would no longer be able personally to superintend. This resignation the Directors have accepted with extreme reluctance; assured, however, that the cause itself will ever remain dear to his heart, and that to the last hour of his life be will continue one of its most attached triends and warmest supporters. The Society will therefore be called this day to the performance of a new duty, in the election of a successor in the office of Treasurer.

It would be ungrateful not to acknowledge, with the warmest affection, the increasing liberality of the members of this Society, both in town and country. This will no doubt form one of the votes of this General Meeting. But it is merely justice to say that the Auxiliary Societies, both in town and country have, by their zeal and activity, greatly encouraged the Directors to proceed in their labours, and, without fear, to lengthen the cords and strengthen the stakes of this institution. To the generous exertions of our Female Friends we are peculiarly indebted, and we calculate with confidence on the continuance and increase of their most valuable assistance.

Every succeeding year will, we hope, present to you the gratifying fruits of your past labours, and the animating prospect of new scenes of action. The world is opening to our view, and inviting us to far more extended efforts. The Directors still look forward to the proposed mission to the Afghans, near Persia; the Monguls and Manjurs in Tartary; and to the interesting island of Madagascar. These missions will be commenced as soon as we are furnished with suitable instruments for the purpose.

These, respected brethren, are the outlines of our proceedings, the pleasing details of which, as they would occupy many hours, must appear in another form. But, from this general sketch, we trust it will be evident that the warmest wishes of the Society are, in some happy measure, attained. It is no longer a question of doubtful speculation whether it be practicable to propagate the gospel among the heathen,—whether suitable persons can be found to do the work of Evangelists-or whether it may please God now, as in an ient times, to prosper the efforts of his servants. The work is accomplished. Able and faithful Missionaries have been obtained; they have been sent forth to the ends of the earth; they have found an open door among the heathen, and their entrance among them has not been in vain. "The wilderness and the solitary place have been made glad; the desert has rejoiced and blossomed as the rose." Christ is preached among the heathen; and therein we rejoice, yea, we will exceedingly rejoice. Many thousands of the pagan tribes have heard the joyful sound of the gospel; and many hundreds have found it to be the power of God to their salvation.

During the past year, our Seminary has received an addition of several promising students. Many more are candidates for the same honour. We have been enabled to strengthen our foreign stations by many additional labourers. New missions of great importance have been commenced; and to support the whole, our funds have been augmented by the growing liberality of the public, and especially by the zeal of our Auxiliary Associations. What need we more? What, but the grateful heart, and the cheerful song? And what now remains, but to persevere with undiminished, or rather with redoubled ardour, in the pursuit of our glorious object—the propagation of the gospel—the conversion of the heathen—the glory of Christ.

POSTSCRIPT.

The expenditure of the Society, in support of these numerous Missions, amounted, last year, to nearly Twenty Thousand Pounds, more than Three Thousand Pounds above the expenditure of the former year; but the Directors have to be thankful that amount is still exceeded by the liberality of its friends; so that they will proceed, with all prudent dispatch, to augment the number of Missionaries in stations where additional help is wanted; to occupy new stations which have been already proposed to the Society; and to obey every call of Providence to probable scenes of usefulness, as quickly as agents, duly qualified for such important engagements, can be obtained.

To remove the objections of some persons not fully acquainted with the Society and its extensive operations, it may be proper to say, that it is by no means the wish of the Directors to accumulate a fund to be unemployed, or to render the Society independent on the public approbation of its measures. This has been sufficiently evinced by the conduct of the Directors, who, even in the past year, increased their expenditure in more than full proportion to the increase of their income in the year preceding; and who entertain no wish for the future but that of diffusing, to the utmost of their power, and to the full extent of their means, the gospel of God among the heathen.

APPENDIX.

SOUTH SEA.

Extract of a Letter from the Missionaries, dated Eimeo, September 17, 1814.

Honoured Fathers and Brethren,

We shall now give a few particulars relative to the mission since the date of our last. In that we mentioned the voyage of brethren Nott and Hayward to the Society Islands. After an absence of about two months, they have restored unto us, brother Nott having preached to most of the innabitants of three islands, viz. Huaheine, Raiatea, and Tahaa. The people heard with attention, and, contrary to former practice among the islanders, assembled to hear of their own accord.

Here, at Eimeo, our congregation has increased greatly. Upaparu, mentioned in our last, together with his brother Vaiturai, both chiefs of Taheite, have come over with a number of their men, on purpose to seek instruction. The king also, after an absence of two years from us, has lately come over with a number of people, most of whom profess to be worshippers of the true God; most of these attend our meetings regularly, and our place of worship, which was lately enlarged, is again too small to contain the people.

The numbers of those who have had their names written as the professed worshippers of Jehovah, who have openly renounced heathenism, and expressed their desire of attending the means of instruction, is now increased to ninety-two, exclusive of seven or eight who are gone to Hualieine and Raiatea.

The school has increased to upwards of two hundred, the greater number of whom make a pleasing progress in spelling, reading, and writing in sand. The call for books is great, and we fear it will be a good while before we have any thing printed and sent to us. We want paper very much, and slates and pencils for the use of our people.

The translation of Luke's Gospel is now finished, but it will take some time to revise, correct, and prepare a copy for the press. We now send a copy of our Taheitean Catechism, to be printed in New South Wales, if it can be done there, otherwise it must be sent to England. The Catechism has been revised and enlarged; the doctrine of the sagraments being added to it.

We greatly wish we had a printing-press, and a person that knows how to use it; it would be of great use to the mission, as the desire of learning to read is now general among the people. The Raiatean chiefs who had come up, a good while ago, to Pomarre's assistance, have lately (most of them) returned to their own country; but previous to their departure they made frequent and earnest applications to the brethren, for some of us to go down and teach them and their people. There are also at Taheite a great number of people who are desirous of instruction; but we are insufficient: our circumstances will not admit of our separating, as we have a vessel in hand, the building of which has been a heavy burden upon us; and though the work is now pretty forward, yet much remains still unfinished; and beside, within the past twelve months, most of us have experienced much illness, so that we were frequently disabled, and could not attend our different avocations; we hope, therefore, that the Directors will take the state of this mission into serious conconsideration. We certainly want assistance at the present time, but probably before any relief can be afforded us, the necessity will be far greater; it is not unlikely that some of us will soon be removed, either to some place for the restoration of health, or else to the grave. Some of our people are very sensible of this, and feel much concerned about it. Just at the present time most of us are in tolerably good health, but with several of us it is very precarious. Brother Henry has had an addition lately to his family, Mrs. Henry being brought to bed of a daughter.

And as we have but a short time to write, we shall now conclude, praying the Lord Jehovah to own and bless the means made use of, both by you and ourselves; so that they may be conducive to his glory and the good of our fellow sinners, and so we remain, honoured fathers and Brethren.

Yours in the bonds of the Gospel,

HENRY BICKNELL, JOHN DAVIES.

Brother WILSON absent.

Extract of a Letter from the Missionaries, dated Eimeo, January 14, 1815.

At the time our last was dated, (Sept. 17, 1814,) brother Wilson was absent; but the cause of his absence was not stated, for fear of causing an uneasiness which might continue long after the occasion of it had ceased. The case was this:—A brig from India, called Matilda, Captain Fowler (last from New South Wales) was endeavouring to get into our harbour on Sept. 3, and brother Wilson, Mr. G. Bicknell, S. Henry (brother Henry's son) the king, the young chief of Huaheine, and about twenty-three others, mostly our people, got on board, to give assistance, as the vessel was almost on the reef, and expecting to get in in the evening; but instead of that, a fresh breeze from the land springing up, they were carried out to sea; and nothing was seen nor heard of them for about three months. This caused us and the natives much uneasiness and anxiety of mind; and we ceased not to pray for their safe return to us, which the Lord mercifully granted; for, December 2, the vessel returned; and they were all restored to us in good health. The vessel had drifted to the Leeward Islands, where, viz. at Raiatea, Tahaa, and Huaheine, they had been lying wind-bound, after some attempts to get up here. At those islands they were kindly entertained, and brother Wilson informs us, that those Raiateans, whose names were recorded here among the worshippers of the true God, are still keeping up their profession; and that they, and many others, the chiefs in general, are exceedingly desirous that some of the Missionaries should reside among them, to teach them the word of the true God, and how to read it.

Here, at Eimeo, our congregation increases apace,—several coming over from Taheite from time to time for the purpose of obtaining instruction. Our constant hearers are about 300, but sometimes many more; so that the house cannot contain them. The number of those that attend school is, at present, 258, mostly adults; and those who have, in a more particular manner, requested their names to be written down as the professed worshippers of the true God, have increased to 204, exclusive of some who have left us. Of the above number, three men and one woman died lately; of each of whom we had some ground of hope. They all acknowledged their sinfulness and need of pardon, and professed to make Jesus Christ and his atonement their only ground of hope; and appeared to pray earnestly that the anger of God might be appeased, and their sins pardoned for the sake of the great atonement. But beside our congregation here, where we reside, which is composed chiefly of strangers from Taheite, Raiatea, and other places, there are numbers at Taheite in different places, who have publicly renounced idolatry, observe the Sabbath, and meet together to worship the true God, and are known by the common appellation Bure Autua, or praying people. There are some also of this description at the little island Tapuamanu, a number at Huaheine, and also at Raiatea: so that the number of those who have renounced idolatry in these several islands, cannot be less than between 500 and 600, including most of the principal chiefs. Some of these people have lately met with a considerable degree of persecution at Taheite. house were a number of them used to meet for worship was burnt down, and some other houses; a number have been banished from their land; and one man has been pursued with the intention of killing him, and offering him a sacrifice to Oro; and all this because they were Bure Autua, yet several of the Ratiras of Taheite, who are still professed idolators, have taken their part, saying, They were innocent people, and ought not to be ill used.

We again wish to remind our honoured Directors, that they should take the state of this mission into serious consideration. Were all possessing a state of uninterrupted health, and were we endowed with zeal and abilities which we don't possess, yet still, in these islands, the harvest would be truly great, and the labourers few, very few, if local circumstances are duly considered and weighed; but as it is, being almost all infirm, and in a very precarious state of health, the urgency of the case is still the greater.

We are, honoured Fathers and Brethren, yours in the bonds of the gospel,

HENRY BICKNELL, JAMES HAYWARD, HENRY NOTT, CHARLES WILSON, JOHN DAVIES,
W. HENRY,
WILLIAM SCOTE,
SAMUEL TESSIER.

P. S. Brother Wilson, while in the islands below, spoke to crowded audiences on the Sabbaths, and Wednesday evenings; and at Raiatea, by the request of the people, and wrote down thirty-nine names, as the worshippers of the true God, including most of the chiefs; and since the above letter was written, a large party has arrived from Taheite, for the purpose of joining the school, &c.; and the number of scholars this day (Jan. 17, 1815,) is 295.

CHINA.

Confession of TSAT-A-NO, the first Chinese baptized by MR. MORRISON.

" JESUS making atonement for us is the blessed sound. Language and thought are both inadequate to exhaust the gracious and admirable goodness of the intention of Jesus. I now believe in Jesus, and rely on his merits to obtain the remission of sin. I have sins and defects, and without faith in Jesus for the remission of sins should be eternally miserable. Now that we have heard of the forgiveness of sins through Jesus, we ought with all our hearts to rely on his merits. He who does not do so is not a good man. I by no means rely on my own goodness. When I reflect and question myself, I perceive that from childhood till now I have had no strength-no merit-no learning. Till this my twenty-seventh year I have done nothing to answer to the goodness of God in giving me existence in this world as a human being. I have not recompensed the kindness of my parents, my relations, my friends. Shall I repine! Shall I hope in my own good deeds! I entirely call upon God the Father, and rely upon God for the remission of sin. I also always pray to God to confer upon me the Holy Spirit."

Mr. Morrison, hoping that this man was sincere in the profession of his faith, baptized him.

"At a spring of water, issuing from the foot of a lofty hill by the sea side, away from human observation, I baptized, in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the person whose character and confession has been given above. O that the Lord may cleanse him from all sin in the blood of Jesus, and purify his heart by the influences of the Holy Spirit. May he be the first fruits of a great harvest; one of millions who shall believe and be saved from the wrath to come."

Extract of a Letter from the Rev. R. Morrison, on the subject of printing the Chinese Testament.

My Dear Sir,

Canton, November 4, 1815.

On the question which you submitted to me, "Whether for printing the sacred Scriptures in Chinese, wooden stereotype, or metal single types, were likely to be cheaper?" I have taken the opinion of the Company's printer, Mr. Thoms, who is daily in use of single metal types employed by him in printing the Chinese Dictionary.

He says, that if in England metal stereotype for printing the sacred scriptures be found cheaper than letter press, it would appear from the similarity of the cases, that the same should hold true in China; wooden blocks being in fact stereotype, and single metal characters a kind of letter press.

In China also wooden blocks become much cheaper than English stereotype. The latter must be regularly composed before the plates be cast; in China the type-cutter requires only a fair

The single letters in Chinese being so numerous, and arranged under no fewer than 214 radicals, though each character be a word, it requires more time to find any given word than is necessary to compose it from the Roman letter. A word from a Greek case, with all its accents, would be composed sooner than a Chinese character from a collection of 30 or 40,000 characters, arranged in the best possible manner.

Though there should not be more than two or three thousand different words in the whole Scriptures, yet the same word occurs often in the course of two or four pages. He supposes, that to publish the eight volumes of the New Testament, as many characters as are in two volumes would be requisite, say 48,000 or 49,000, which, at forty characters per dollar, makes 1247 dollars, £311.* The expence of cutting the whole eight volumes, suppose 740 or 800 dollars, £200. (The blocks of the duodecimo edition cost 500 dollars; the writer received 50 dollars.)

In going through the press there would be no advantage. Suppose eight pages were worked at once, which would require a considerably larger fount. Two Chinese engage to throw off 4000 copies of two pages a-day, which is equal to 8000 copies of four pages. Few, if any, Europeans in these climates could throw off 2000 copies of eight pages, allowing two men at a press. The monthly wages of Chinese labourers and mechanics are from three to six dollars.

Then follows the great advantage of serereotype, viz. taking 50 or 100 copies at a time, as they are wanted; and also, that once correct, it remains permanently correct. And when I leave the country, the blocks may be left behind, and the sacred Scriptures printed without danger of error. They may be sent also to any other place, to the Russian frontier if you please, and the Scriptures printed from them. That would be much better than carrying the books.

I am myself fully convinced, that all that can be said in favour of metal stereotype for printing standard books, applies with fully as much, if not with greater force and truth, to the Chinese wooden stereotype.

My duodecimo New Testament, yellowish paper, (the middle class of paper,) I have thrown off, and bound up, for three mace six candarcens, i. e. half a dollar Spanish, or two shillings and sixpence English.

In the Summer I re-examined the New Testament, and an happy to say, that at present, having daily a little more experience in the Chinese, the translation is very satisfactory to me. There are in it some typographical errors, and two or three omissions of a member of a sentence, which I shall correct as soon as circumstances permit.

JAVA.

Extracts from the Journal of Mr. Milne, during his travels in Java, to distribute the Scriptures in the Chinese language.

"I HAD the satisfaction to find that the same identical character which the Chinese use, is used by the Cochin-Chinese in their language; but the idiom and phraseology, Mr. Morrison says, are somewhat different; yet, as he was able to understand a document, notwithstanding technical terms, I hope the Chinese New Testament will be understood by them."

"Waited on Governor Rafiles, who received me kindly, and promised to do all in his power to aid me; which he certainly did, during my whole stay in Java.

"My rooms are near the road; I therefore invited some China men, who were passing, to come in sit down, and talk. This I found to be a good plan; as it gave me an opportunity of finding who could read, and who were proper objects for the written word."

Mr. Milne placed on the door of his house, a bill, signifying that books were given away. This, says he, brought in many passengers, so that I had from six to twenty Chinese calling every day.

"Went out a little way from town, to a place where some Chinese have settled near the road, and went from house to house conversing with the people and giving them tracts.

"From morning to night, engaged with China men, either at my lodgings or at their houses and shops. In this way the greater part of this month was spent; going from house to house—searching out the schools—supplying them with tracts, catechisms, &c.—a work which I found very hard on my constitution. From the excessive heat, the fumes from the canals, from close, damp, or dirty houses, I have frequently been made so sick, that I could almost have lain down in the very streets. But, blessed be God, no evil befel me; and the importance of the object made me willing to go any where.

"I went out into the country to several villages, from three to thirty miles distant; supplied all, especially the schools, with catechisms, tracts, and some testaments.

"The Rev. Professor Ross had the goodness to shew me the Batavian library, where, among other interesting books, I saw copies of the Scriptures printed in the Tamul, Cingulese, Malabar, Portugueze, and Malay; together with catechisms, and other treatises on the Christian religion. There are two different versions of the Malay Bible, one in High Malay; this is printed both in the Arabic and in the Roman character; and one in Low Malay, in an easy style, for the use of the lower classes of the people. And it should be mentioned to the honour of the Dutch government, that all these are said to have been printed under its sanction, and at its expense.

" Met with several persons from Fo-kien (in China) who promised to forward testaments to their relatives at home.

"Several persons called to ask about the true meaning of some parts of the sacred Scriptures. One man told me, that he could not sleep for reflecting on the words of the New Testament."

May 18, 1814, Mr. Milne, having obtained letters from the Governor to the English residents, set out on his journey to the east of the island, accompanied by a medical gentieman. Travelled along a road formed by Dandales, once the French Governor of Java; this extends from Bantam on the west, to the eastern extremity of the island. Perhaps it may be questioned whether Semiramis, whose conduct is said to have illustrated

Isaiah, xl. 4. " Every valley," &c. overcame greater obstacles than Dandales. Report (probably much exaggerated) says that 20,000 lives were lost in cutting this road.

In the course of this journey Mr. Milne visited the hot wells at Japannas—lodged in the house of a Malay prince at Chanjore and at Bandong at the house of a native Regent—hospitably treated by Col. Raban at Cheribon—passed an inhospitable forest, called "The Forest of Death;" three or four thousand men are said to have died in this forest, through its extreme unhealthiness; here the carriage broke down, and it was feared Mr. Milne and his people must have continued all night among the wild beasts (tigers, &c. which abound here) but a native chief furnished them with horses to proceed to Samarang; twelve miles.

After a journey of +12 miles Mr. Milne arrived at Sourabaya, and was kindly treated in the house of Col. Alex. Adams.

Crossed to the island of Madura, and lodged at the palace of the Sultan, at Osencallan. He is an old man of eighty-three years, and professes the Mahometan religion.

On returning to Sourabaya, called on the prince of Perma-cassen, who was preparing to go to the Mahometan mosque.

Mr. Milne visited Solo the metropolis of Java, and the seat of the Javanese emperor.

Here he met with the celebrated botanist, Dr. Horsefield, who obligingly showed him his valuable collections, and performed before him an experiment on a young fowl, of the famous poison from the copas tree, of which so many wild and vague things have been published. An incision was made in the leg of the fowl, and a very small quantity of the prepared poison inserted with a wooden point. The creature fell down convulsed in about five minutes, and in fifteen expired. As this poison is various in its degree of power, its effects also differ. Sometimes it will kill a dog in ten minutes, at other times the animal will live half an hour.

Mr. Milne was introduced to his Imperial Majesty, seated on his throne, which resembled a three-legged stool, made of silver, covered with red velvet and bordered with gold lace. His majesty conversed with him and called for wine, and they drank a little together.

At Serandole, called on Major Mevean, a Scotch gentleman, who shewed him much kindness. Here Mr. Milne had an opportunity of speaking to about two hundred of his countrymen from Matt. xxviii. &c.

Lodged at Samarang, at the house of Dr. Brown, to whom and Mrs. Brown, Mr. Milne and the Society are much indebted.

Mr. Milne returned with Dr. R. in a small uncomfortable vessel at Batavia, where, after a miserable passage of four days they safely arrived; but the vessel sunk in the roads a few hours after they left her.

Soon after this, Messrs. Supper, Bruckner, and Kam, Missionaries from England arrived. In this island there are about 100,000 Chancse. The inhabitants of the whole island may be estimated at five millions, four of which are Javanese. (The number of the inhabitants has been far over-rated in some publications.)

MALACCA.

MR. MILNE was very kindly received at this place by the Resident Major, W. Farquhar. The population of the town and suburbs of Malacca is about 20,000. The inhabitants are Dutch, Portugueze, Malays, Gentoos, and Chinese; of the last there may be about 5000, who reside chiefly in the town, and would form an excellent charge for a Missionary. The greater part of the Dutch inhabitants can now understand and speak a little English. The Malays are totally destitute of the Gospel in any form. Mr. M. being informed that there are large settlements of Chinese at Trimgana, Lingam, Burtang, &c. sent Testaments and tracts to them.

When Mr. Milne was in China, he had an opportunity of seeing Nine Hundred Chinese priests, collected together at the consecration and initiation of sixteen candidates for the priesthood; after which they all sat down to a dinner of vegetables in one large hall. "I dined," says Mr. M. "the same day, on priests' fare, with the man who was formerly the chief of that institution at Hae-nan, where they were collected. priest, with many others, made a number of enquiries about the laws, customs, religion, &c. of the English; and it gave me great pleasure to be able, for once, in such a place, to say, "We do not worship gods which men can make, adorn, and destroy; which neither see, nor hear, nor speak, nor move; but we worship the One only living and true God, who made heaven and earth, and all things, &c."

Though the temple was crowded with gods of clay, wood, and stone, which they daily worship, yet they (the priests) did not seem at all offended by the reproach thus thrown on their

Mr. Milne solicits books for the Malacca library. friends of the Society will perform a useful service to the mission by the present of books of science or theology, which may be sent to the Society's Rooms, 8, Old Jewry, London. 'The following would be particularly acceptable: - Comments on the Scriptures, by Poole, Henry, Doddridge, Scott, Guyse, Campbell, M'Knight, Brown; Hebrew, Greek, Latin, and English Lexicons and Dictionaries; Works of Owen, Goodwyn, Watts, Howe, Leighton, Hall; Encyclopædias, School-books, Catechisms, Tracts, &c. &c.

Before Mr. Milne left Java, he composed and printed in Chinese the following parting address to the people, among whom he had distributed the Scriptures, &c.

- "A general Address to the respected People of the Ta-tsing Dynasty, who dwell in Pa (Batavia), and in the other Places in Java.
- "Benevolent Elder Brethren!

"Prace, prosperity, ten thousand blessings, and all the good which you desire.

- "Your younger brother, intending to visit other parts, presents this parting token of respect; but his eyes will constantly look towards you, his heart, always ruminating, will remember you, and he resolves to pray that the Deity may bless you and your children, and your children's children, to ten thousand generations.*
- "Your younger brother thinks, that the Maker of the heavens and the earth, is the one only true and living God, and there is none else.

"The past, the present, and the future are fully known to God—he rewards goodness—punishes wickedness—and can do all things.

- "The gods who have not made the heavens and the earth cannot endure as the heavens and the earth (i. e. must perish); but the true and living God will exist eternally. He made and nourishes all men under heaven, and will judge all. When we sit—when we sleep—when we speak—and when we think, God observes all.
- "No man can at any time see God; therefore no man understands his form.
- "All human beings under heaven have often sinned against God, and deserve to suffer his displeasure: but God, being merciful and gracious, sent his only Son Jesus into the world to teach men to practice virtue, and to redeem them from their iniquities, in order that all who repent of their sins, and trust in Jesus, should obtain eternal life in heaven. Those who do not receive his doctrines, but work iniquity, must go down to hell (i. e. earth's prison), and suffer undefined punishment.

"These are the doctrines of the holy books which your younger brother has presented to you his respected friends.

- "These books teach men about the affairs of ancient times—concerning the character of men of the present age—the happiness and the misery of the life to come—the temple of heaven, and the prison of hell.
- "Some parts of these books are perhaps not easily understood at present—but pray to God to unfold them—every day read a little; perhaps afterwards some person will come and explain them to you—then you will be able to understand.

^{*} Mr. Milne adopts the phraseology of the Chinese people.

"Remember what the sages have said, 'Do not blot or destroy good books.'

" Brethren-This life is temporary-all things under the sun are vanity; therefore do not set your hearts upon them.

"While we live, the riches of the world have their use; when we die, they are altogether useless; after death, we cannot vary away a single waen (i. e. none at all). Seek God's gracious favour—deal justly with all—let not the rich greedily oppress the poor, nor the poor discontentedly complain of their lot; for both rich and poor must shortly die.

"Parents, teach your children to read the sacred book, to write, to fear the true God, to trust in Jesus Christ, to venerate the aged, to discharge filial piety to you, to love their brothers and sisters, to pity the poor, and to do good to all men; then all will be well.

" Your younger Brother,

" ME-LE-EN,
" bows and pays his respects.

JAVA.

MR. SUPPER, Missionary at Batavia, says, in a letter dated Nov. 1814, "The books which Mr. Milne distributed among the Chinese have had a good effect. I now and then take a morning ride, on purpose to enquire whether they read the New Testament and Tracts, and I find that they really do, and are pleased with what they read. But they wish for a living interpreter; and indeed I earnestly wish that some faithful Missionaries might come faither, and attend solely to the Chinese language; " they would soon be able to preach to the people."

In another letter, dated June 27, 1815, he says, "Here is much, very much to be done, and great opportunities of being useful. I have lately been travelling in the island, and find that the field is very extensive, and ripe for the harvest. I have conversed with Mahometan priests and their people, and I can assure you that they seem to be ready to receive a better religion than they have hitherto professed. I believe that if the gospel were preached to them in its purity, they would in a short time receive it. I repeat, therefore, my request, that well-educated Missionaries may, as soon as possible, be sent out to them; and I sincerely hope that some Dutch evangelical ministers may soon come hither; and then I shall gladity give piace to one, and devote myself entirely to Missionary employment."

^{*} This will probably be done under the direction of Mr. Milne at Malacea.

PENANG, OR PRINCE OF WALES'S ISLAND.

MR. THOMSEN, on his passage from Bombay to Malacca, touched at this island, where he was treated with great kindness by the Governor, Sir William Petrie, and by —— Coombs, Esq. his Secretary, who also favoured him with a letter of introduction to Major Farquhar, resident and Commandant in Malacca. The English clergyman also, the Rev. Mr. Hutchings, behaved in the most friendly manner to him, and gave him many important hints respecting the Malay language, &c.

Mr. Thomsen having made enquiry among the Chinese (who understood English) how the Chinese books had been received, was informed that the Roman Catholic Priest (father Michael) had endeavoured to prevent their circulation, saying, that the Testament was a bad translation; that the translator was not sufficiently acquainted with the language, and that the Catechism, or book of doctrines, was altogether erroneous and "This gave occasion (says Mr. Thomsen) for an interview between us. I made myself known to him as a Missionary, and he received me with great civility, taking me to be a Roman Catholic. At first, our conversation turned on the news of Europe, and he was quite out of humour with Bonaparte for having treated the Pope so cruelly, and he thought that Bonaparte was the Antichrist spoken of in the Revelations under the name of Napoleon; but, upon examining the Syriac, Ethiopic, Greek, and Latin Testament, he found $A\pi o\lambda\lambda\nu\omega\nu$ and Apollyon, instead of Napoleon.

"Respecting the Chinese books, he denied that he had dissuaded any from reading them, but having been asked his opinion, had said, that if they were written by Protestants, they were assuredly erroneous and dangerous, though he had not read the books, nor does he understand the language."

CHINSURAH.

CONCERNING the schools under the superintendance of

Mr. May, he writes as follows:

"I superintend the native school at Chinsurah, which is called the Central or Head School, as all the lessons go from thence, and on this they all depend. These schools are established on each side of the river Hoogly, a branch of the Ganges; the most distant, about twelve miles above Chinsurah, and the other about six below. Three days in the week are occupied in visiting these schools, either by myself or my assistants. This is to me a delightful employment, but very fatiguing. I am generally very weary when I return home in the evening. I want help. Send me two persons, or at least one. Let them be likeminded with myself, acquainted with the new system, with all its latest improvements; let them be persons who love children, and who are willing to use their utmost endeavours for their good."

Some idea of Mr. May's plan of teaching may be learned from the following part of a letter on the subject, in answer to some enquiries proposed to him by an officer of government.

"With respect to the plan pursued for the attainment of the above objects, it would require much room to detail it. I have attempted improvements on almost every part of their own mode of teaching, as practised in their own schools, which I have often visited for that purpose; I have endeavoured to form a system, as far as local and other circumstances will allow, combining the advantages of the new system of education, with that which is prevalent among the natives of Bengal.

"My plan, as it is at present taught, has some peculiarities in it, which distinguish it from every other hitherto practised among the native children. Experience and observation have gradually led me to adopt them, as judging them advantageous under existing circumstances.

"The schools are distinguished into central and branch; they have a mutual connection with, and dependence on each other; and thus form a complete whole. It is only in the central or head school that the plan adopted by me is completely followed. It is intended gradually to be introduced into the branch schools also, as far as practicable. Most trials of proposed improvements are first made in the head school, which is at my own residence, and under my own eye, and which I daily superintend. I however frequently visit the branch schools.

"It is only in the central school that it is intended to teach English; and that rather as a reward or encouragement for their progress in the Bengallee. It is from this school that the boardlessons are circulated. No book is made use of on my plan, neither has there hitherto been any use made of printing. the lessons which the children learn are painted on boards of three different sizes: I think this method by far the best for native schools; combining the advantages of cheapness, durability, and convenience. Two peculiar recommendations are-The director of the schools may adapt the contents of the boardlessons to the local prejudices and other circumstances of the neighbourhood; and, secondly, They can be easily circulated among all the schools under one central school. By this means a very great reduction may be made in the total number required for the teaching of a given number of schools or of boys. One thing which remarkably distinguishes this plan from the native

one, is, that in their own schools instruction is conveyed chiefly through the ear-in my plan, chiefly through the eye.

"By my plan the boys are made acquainted with the printed as well as the written character, and learn easily to distinguish the difference: in their own schools the written character is universally used. Thus they will be more inclined to read printed books than the present generation of natives are. These are some of the most remarkable peculiarities of my plan, which, however, can be matured only by further experience, experiment, and reflection.

" I am, Sir, &c."

" Chinsurah, June 30, 1815."

How fully Mr. May's plans met the approbation of the gentlemen concerned, will appear from the following testimony:

Extract from a Letter from the Judge of Circuit, addressed to the Commissioner of the Foreign Settlements, dated the 1st of June, 1815.

Para, 6.—" The school for tuition in the Bengallee language, under Mr. May, with its affiliated institutions, I consider of more immediate practical benefit than the free school. It promotes uniformity in conduct and principle in the village schools in the neighbourhood, which renders it more than partially useful, and gives it a claim to every support. It diffuses its benefits to all around it; and as long as reading, writing, and arithmetic are of value, will deserve the most liberal aid. For the adaptation of the mechanism of the system to the language of the country, as well as for the employment of his time, with little other remuneration than the consciousness of doing good, Mr. May is entitled to unqualified praise, and I should feel obliged by your making these sentiments known to him."

The children generally meet in the open air, under the shade of a tree, which saves the great expence of building school-rooms. I sit down in the midst of the children, and then bid them shew me their writing, which they read to me, and afterwards they repeat their tables and lessons. I then speak a few words to them as well as I can.

Lately, a Bengalee woman, who observed my attention to the children, wept, and said "The Bengalee rich men neglect the children, and show no love to them; but here (said she) is a Sahib, come from a far country, and see he loves our children!"

JAVA.

Extracts of Letters from Mr. Supper.

I RECEIVED from Mr. Milne, at Macao, some tracts, the outlines of the History of the Bible, and the Divine Songs, in the Chinese language. The Chinese received them with unspeakable gratitude; some kissed the books, and bowed before me to the ground. The Arabians, as well as the Chinese, say, "We want teachers to explain these writings to us.

When I was just finishing my letter, hundreds of the Chinese were passing my house, returning from their very extensive burial ground, where they had been paying their usual homage to their deceased relations. I placed myself at the gate of my garden in the high road, and distributed among them many of the tracts. With what joy and gratitude they were received, I am unable to express. One must personally witness such scenes as these to be able to form an adequate idea of them. I must say, that the awful superstition and idolatry of such people on the one hand, and their eagerness after, and gratitude for, the word of God on the other, must either excite the warmest Missionary zeal, or miserably harden the heart.

Extract of another Letter.

Here is much, very much to be done, and great opportunities of being useful. I have been lately travelling in the island, and find that the field is very extensive and ripe for the harvest. I have conversed with Mahometan priests and their people, and I can assure you, that they seem to be ready to receive a better religion than they have hitherto professed. I believe that if the gospel were preached to them in its purity, they would in a short time receive it. I repeat therefore my request, that well-educated Missionaries may, as soon as possible, be sent out to them: and I sincerely hope, that some Dutch evangelical ministers may soon come bither; and then I shall gladly give place to one, and devote myself entirely to Missionary employment.

INDIA.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Fyvie.

Bombay, Sept. 12, 1816.

OUR first business, after landing, was to call on the Governor, who received us in the most friendly manner. We delivered to him the letter the Directors sent by us. He said there was no obstacle in the way of our proceeding to Surat, as soon as a conveyance could be obtained. His Excellency reminded us of the mildness and prudence proper and necessary on the part of Missionaries, which perfectly accorded with our own sentiments, and our instructions from the Directors. Mr. and Mrs. Thomsen were favoured with a free passage in the Psyche, one of the Company's cruizers, bound to Pulo Penang. The Psyche sailed from this port on the 22d of August, and was expected to arrive at Pulo Penang in less than three weeks.

On the day that we landed, many thousands of Hindoos were assembled at a certain place to worship the Snake. For this religious service they assign the following reasons:—1st, Because a snake is the bed on which their favourite god Vishnu reposes on the sea of milk: 2ndly, Because they suppose that a snake sustains the earth, by putting his head under it; 3dly, and principally, Because Krishnu, one of their ten incarnations of Vishnu, in one of his adventures, fell into the mouth of a snake, and was in danger of being devoured. This threw his mother into the greatest distress; and having interceded for the life of her son, she vowed to the snake, that if he would spare him, every body should worship the snake one day in the year. About a fortnight ago, more than fifty thousand Hindoos were assembled by the sea-side, to present offerings to the vast ocean. If this ceremony were neglected, the natives would not consider it safe to sail on the Malabar coast. We have visited several of the Heathen temples since our arrival: they are in general very mean and dirty are full of idols, many of which have a shocking appearance. Alas! what ignorance of the true God! Who does not feel bowels of compassion for such idolaters? Who would not rejoice to lay down even his life, if he might be the means of bringing a few, nay one of them, out of such amazing darkness into the light of the glorious gospel!

Our letters of introduction have procured us many friends in this place. From them we have endeavoured to gain as much information as possible, respecting Surat. But it is astonishing how little is known about it even in Bombay. The result of our enquiry is, that Surat is an immensely populous place; but no one can tell us the number of its inhabitants. The wall of the city is said to be ten miles round. Formerly it was one of the most healthy places in India; but two years ago there was a grievous famine (occasioned by the want of rain) throughout the Guzeratt country, and since that time Surat has been rather unhealthy; but the effects of the famine are nearly gone, and it is expected Surat will again resume its former salubrity. The languages spoken, are the Hindostanee and Guzurette; the former by the Mahometans, and the latter by the Hindoos. As the Hindostanee is spoken by all the people in business on this coast, it would be greatly to the advantage of Missionaries coming hither, to pay a little attention to the rudiments of this language in England. We are happy to inform the Directors that Abdallah, our teacher at Stepney, was perfectly correct in his instructions; and we shall find great benefit from the little time we spent in attending to this language while in London.

Extract of Mr. Lee's Journal at Ganjam.

There is a pagoda near my house, consecrated to Condasvaroodoo (Shevah), the image of which is a stone, which the Brahmins affirm, and the people generally believe, came there of itself. For eight days past a Brahmin has shut himself up in this pagoda, eating only fruits, and has all this time been expostulating with the idol for not sending rain, and threatening to break its head, and leave off making poojah (offering prayers, &c.) if rain does not speedily come. Yesterday evening, to the great joy of all, a good shower fell, and another to-day, though certainly not from the dumb and lifeless idol.

A short time since a Brahmin's widow, having heard of the death of her husband, who was at a distance from home, applied to the magistrate for permission to burn herself—the permission was granted, and the horrid ceremony took place not far distant from hence!

BELLARY.

A LETTER from Mr. Hands, dated Bellary, Sept. 1815, is come to hand. He has sent the Directors a number of idols of silver, copper, &c. for their Museum. Also a copy of St. Luke's gospel, written on leaves; Christ's Sermon on the Mount, in the Canara language, &c. He says, that though he cannot gratify them with an account of the poor Hindoos around him having openly embraced the gospel, yet, he thinks there are many convinced of its excellence and divinity, and who are desirous of becoming more and more acquainted with it. "The gospels, in Telinga, and the 1st and 2d Catechisms, have been widely circulated in the country around us, and have excited much attention. Scarcely a day passes without several coming for books, and to make enquiries."

In April last I visited the once famous city of Bijnnagur (or Bisnagar) at the time of the great annual testival held there; which afforded me an opportunity of witnessing much of the idolatry, ignorance, and wretchedness of the Hindoos; and also an opportunity of speaking and distributing to many the word of life. Since then, in August, I travelled into the Mysore, as far as Chitteldroog, about 80 miles from Bellary; and in my journey, I passed through several large towns and villages, where I visited the schools, addressed the children, and others who were present, and supplied them with books for the use of the schools, &c. which were, in general, eagerly and thankfully received, and many heard with attention the glad tidings of the gospel.

AFRICA.

Letter from Rev. Mr. Thom, dated Cape Town, April 4, 1815.

My present engagements are varied and constant, above my strength and talents. Being now able to explain the gospel in the Dutch tongue, a wide field of labour has presented itself to view, both in town and country. At the earnest request of many pious farmers, and some slaves, I lately took a short excursion for 13 days, a circuit of about 220 miles, during which I preached 15 times, to about 1,300 people. At the Pearl I met with the Rev. Mr. Vos, of Caledon, on a visit, who sows the seed of the gospel wherever he comes. On the journey I took down the names of 17 pious slaves that had been brought to the knowledge of Christianity at various times, but who are not baptized. On the journey Mrs. Thom had an opportunity of frequently conversing with Malays, and I hope in two instances good has resulted from it.

In Cape Town my labours for some time have been in public threefold.

1. The Scots Congregation, 140 to 150 hearers at a time; divine service three times a-week, and two private meetings for examining candidates for the Lord's Supper. We have 50 members and 30 candidates.—There are about 500 soldiers here, Scots.

2. The American congregation at the prison—the greatest part of the crew of the late United States brig Syren, which was captured by one of His Majesty's 74's. They consist of young men, whose parents are Congregationalists, Presbyterians, &c. chiefly from Boston or its vicinity. Understanding that there was one here who would preach the gospel in the forms to which most of them had been accustomed, they addressed a letter to Admiral Tyler, who readily granted their request. The moralizing effect of the gospel has been wonderful among them. They have written me several letters, in which is evidently to be seen the gradual, and in some instances the immediate force of truth. Every one has received a Bible or Testament. Some friends here put into my hands 120 rix-dollars to purchase for them religious books, and they have been supplied with scores of these gratis. I was much pleased by numbers applying for Baxter's Call. The surgeon of the ship communicated with us at the Lord's Table, and the Commander and Officers sent a letter of thanks this morning. Every week they had divine service twice.

3. A heathen congregation of slaves and free people-120 to 200 attend: the day begins to break among them. This week I intend to baptize two Mahometans and three Heathens.

Another way of doing good, and which has been well illustrated in India, where religious books only ten years ago were very rare indeed, has employed my attention, and that is dispersing religious books at a low rate. Two booksellers sent me lately out £350. of these, and the half have been sold; the soldiers are the best customers. In consequence of the lamented death of Mr. Kenneth Duncan, merchant, the agent for the Bible Society, who was killed six weeks ago by a fall from his horse, I have taken the whole of the last investment of Bibles, amounting to £500 and am selling and distributing them for the British and Foreign Bible Society—this takes up much of my time, but it is well spent.

For some time past I have proposed to Government to visit Robben Island, the Botany Bay of South Africa, which lies eight miles from land in Table Bay, where there are unfortunate men, Christians (so called), Malays, and Heathens, condemned, some for life. I believe there never was a sermon preached on the island. If ever a heart ought to feel for the misery of man, it ought to feel for these unhappy creatures. Though I have applied to the proper authority (gratuitously to visit the island) five times, I have not yet obtained permission. It is to be hoped, however, that a pious chaplain will be appointed for the prison and the island. There is a class of Africans which deserve to be noticed—the emancipated slaves—that is, those who are taken in ships under the Act of Abolition of the Slave Trade, and made free. I think there are about 1,500 of these, and they have little or no religious instruction.

As Mrs. Smit is literally worn out in the cause of the heathen, Mrs. Thom, at Mrs. Smit's request, has taken her place in the school, and instructs them in the Dutch language and in religion twice or thrice a-week. There are between 2 and 3,000 Malays in town and in the neighbourhood; I have some thoughts of beginning a school in that language, with the assistance of Mrs. T., and eventually preaching in it; but I must have help. Here there is a large field for two zealous men—one could frequently be travelling while the other is in town. The Calcutta Auxiliary Bible Society have sent me, by the Rev. Dan. Corrie, 50 Malay Testaments in the Roman character—this is a good supply. Perhaps Cape Town may yet be the glory of South Africa, and from it the word may sound forth far and wide.

GEO. THOM.

Extract of a Letter from the Rev. James Dawson, on his way to India.

When I came within sight of the mountains of Africa, I felt something of the comfort, and courage, and gratitude expressed by the apostle Paul, when he came to "Appii Forum and the Three Taverns." A country where there are Missionaries is a delightful object to those who are engaged in the same work, and who have been for some months on the mighty deep.

Mrs. D. and I have been much refreshed by our interview with the good people here, particularly with Mr. and Mrs. B., whose son went to England with Mr. Campbell. Many of the Missionaries who have touched at the Cape have experienced their hospitality.

We have also had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Pacalt, who came hither with two waggons, to fetch the Missionaries for Latakkoo. We saw nine of his people; they sing exceedingly well. One of the girls read some verses of the 3d of John, and one of the men prayed. His prayer astonished those who understood the Dutch language. We were all affected when they told us how they had been praying for the Missionaries all the way from their own homes to Cape Town. Mr. Pacalt has 80 in his school, and more than 200 attend on the Lord's-day. The Lord is greatly blessing the labour of his servants in Africa; and I hope he will pour out his spirit on the Missionaries in India, and in every other country.

Progress of Civilization in Africa.

Complaints have been made by some travellers and other persons, that civilization has been neglected by the Missionaries: the following letter will, we think, satisfy our readers that the charge is unfounded; and that, considering the natural indolence of the Hottentots, much has, in fact, been effected.

Remarks on trades, &c. at Bethelsdorp, by Mr. George Barker, Missionary, on his way to Latakkoo, in a Letter to a Friend.

Government and others employ their waggons and oxen, for which they are well paid;—they fell and prepare timber for a person a few miles off, which is sent to Cape Town by water. I heard him say that he paid for this, to one Hottentot, in about three months, 800 rix-dollars. There is also a tanner in the neighbourhood, for whom they obtain bark. I have been surprised to see what they do. They purchase houses and gardens. Mr. C. has lately sold a house for 190 rix-dollars, and a garden for 40 ditto. Four of the Hottentots went to a sale, and purchased 400 sheep and lambs, since we came here. They have many cattle and waggons. There is a waggon-maker who is now making a waggon for the Society. He does the smith's work also. There are three or four Hottentot carpenters, whom Mr. Corner has instructed, who make very good tables, chairs, bedsteads, doors, &c.—a shoe-maker, who has put new soles on my shoes—a tanner, from whom I have got a sheep's skin dressed, and it is a very good one. Mr. M——has commenced baking, and bakes much bread, for which he receives ready money. They have some very fine gardens up the kloof, not far from the town, which, though in their infancy (this being the first year of most of them) shew both industry and taste, and do them much credit. Bethelsdorp is much better than I expected to find it; but the beauty of Bethelsdorp is not visible to the eyes of flesh. I trust it has been, and is a Bethel to many a poor soul.

Conversion of a Mahometan.

Another Mahometan slave lately came to Bethelsdorp, who said he had been for many years seeking peace in his religion, but could find none; but having learned something of Christ, from one of the women of Bethelsdorp, he had obtained the peace he had long desired. He said, he had always doubted the truth of a religion which, while it required a strict regard to various rites on the one hand, allowed all manner of vices on the other. He went boldly to the Priest, avowed the change of his views, and exhorted him to follow his example. He said also, that before he received Christ he could not abstain from sin; but now he felt no desire to commit it.

"We have been looking," says Mr. Read, "for talents and arguments in order to gain the victory over Mahomet; but God is making use of Hottentot women for that purpose "that no flesh may glory in his presence."

Extracts of Letters from the Rev. J. Evans, to the Rev. D. Peter, and others, at Carmarthen.

Rev. and dear Sir,

Bethelsdorp, Oct. 30, 1815.

We arrived here on the 14th of September, all well. We were very kindly received at the different Missionary stations on our way hither. Before we entered the stations, men, women, and children, ran in crowds to meet us, praising God for sending Missionaries to their country, and earnestly praying for our success.

One day as we were travelling, we came to a place where human beings were sold by auction. A man was put up in one lot, and his wife and children in another. When the poor woman saw her husband set up by himself, she fell prostrate on the ground, and her poor children about her quite overwhelmed with sorrow. On seeing them, the poor man, in the most distressing tone, said, "If I am to be sold alone, the buver, whoever he may be, will not be profited; but sell us together, my dear wife, myself, and children, and we will exert ourselves to the utmost of our power to serve our master. Self-interest caused them to be put up together, and they were bought by one man; and it is impossible for me to express the extacy of joy discovered by the poor creatures on the occasion.

I have paid so much attention to the language of the country, as to be able to carry on a short conversation with the Hottentots. Meeting a Hottentot one day, I asked him, "Where is your home?" 'With the farmer." "What does he say to you?" "Work, work,' he says. "Does he say something of Christ and of your soul to you!" 'No; but he tells me I have no soul! for he tells me to look at the ox, he is black, and has short hair like you; that is, what you are!'

I asked another, "Who made you?" Being unwilling to answer, I said, tell me what you know about the matter. Then he said, 'The farmer told me, that the devil of Christians made me and all the blacks.' "How did he prove that?" He took a mirror and placed it before me: then, said he, there is as much difference between my Creator and yours, as there is between the white and black face which you see in the mirror!"

One day two young girls came in. On being asked what they wanted, they replied, "To speak of salvation." "Why?" One of them answered, 'Because my heart is sick.' "What makes your heart sick?" 'My many sins.' "What will you do with such a wicked heart?" 'Bring it to the feet of Jesus.' "How long will you continue there?" 'As long as he shall please to keep me there.

These are God's doings, and wonderful in our eyes. one to fourteen of the Heathens are baptized here almost every Sunday since our arrival,

Oh! how pleasant it is to see the work of the Lord prospering! Upwards of 200 of the Heathen assemble every week at this place, to sing praises to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; and often continue till midnight. Their motion is like that of the zealous Welsh; and their voices most sweet. Indeed, I consider the melody of their notes in the profound silence of the night, as the very sublime in music; for I have never heard any, vocal or instrumental, equal to it in England, Wales, or Africa. It charms the soul of the hearer! Thanks be to God, that praises to him sound in my ears; and that from the mouths of Heathens who were lately the worst of men, but now are taught of God.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Read, at Bethelsdorp.

You will perceive, dear Sir, that God is carrying on his work with vigour, not only here but in Africa in general. We may say here, that almost daily souls are added to the church such as shall be saved. The day before yesterday a young man (one of brother Corner's apprentices, a carpenter) had been sent to the woods to cut and saw timber. On his departure, brother Messer said to him, "Wenzell, you must not return the same man that you go away." This word touched him. When he was working in the wood, he had the misfortune almost to cut off his foot. He saw this painful event to be from God; convictions of sin seized him, and he cried out to God for mercy. His leg was nearly mortifying, and his life seemed as it were to hang by a thread. He constantly exclaimed, 'Thou art a just God!thou art a just God! He sent a message to his father and mother not to be concerned for him but for themselves -that God had wounded and would heal him, which indeed, in great mercy he did, both in body and soul. Soon after his recovery, being engaged in felling timber, he came to a fine large tree, from which he expected many good boards; but, after cutting a while, he found it to be quite rotten and hollow; and it was as though one had said to him, "Ah, Wenzell! this is a picture of you and of every sinner!" He fell upon his face, crying, "O what a wonder, that such a rotten tree as I am should so long have cumbered the ground!" Ever since he came home he has been drowned in tears, and almost all that we can get from him is-"O free grace! free grace!"

In another letter Mr. Read says, "A boy came here last night from a boor's, and gave a most pleasing account of the work of grace in his heart. I asked him, if he knew himself to be a sinner? He asked me, if I knew any one who was not?—I asked him, who could save him? He said, Christ.—I asked what Christ had done to save sinners? Died upon the cross.—I asked if he believed Jesus Christ would save him? He said, Yes—Why do you believe it? I feel it, said he; and not only so, I consider, that after he had died, and sent his servants the missionaries from such a far country, to publish salvation, that it would be very strange if after all he should reject a sinner!"

Speech of a converted Bushman.

"At an afternoon meeting, Bother Pretorius addressed the people on the readiness with which Jesus Christ would accept a Bushman (the most despised of all the African tribes, and considered little better than beasts,) as well as any other. Think, said he, what we were, and what we now are, since God has sent his servants to shew us the way of salvation. Have not I, a Bushman, found grace. Was not I taken from the muzzle of the gun, and made an heir of eternal life? Was it ever known that a Hottentot had a waggon? No. Now I have a waggon, and 20 oxen. We knew not God, much less his Son. We never enquired after him, but He sought us and made us his children

(and then he wept);—yes out of the holes of the mountains. There are many who do not like to be called Bushmen—I am not ashamed to say that I am one. God has had mercy upon me, and why should he not have mercy upon you? What are Bushmen but dogs to the Caffres, boors, and Oorlam Hottentots! Take an example from what Jesus has done for me, and why should he not help you? Arise, and go to him (and here he wept again)—I wish I had this day an opportunity of telling all the Caffres, Hottentots and Bushmen, what God has done for me a Bushman.

Extracts from the Journal of the Missionaries at Bethelsdorp.

Nov. 6.—Visiting several houses; asked an old woman, in whom there is a work of grace, How she felt herself? She answered, Well.—What do you call well? When the heart is full of love to Christ.—Why do you love Christ? Yes, because he will help me, and has helped me.—From what must be help you? From my sins.—How do you know that he will help you? He has promised to do it; he is immutable, and so are his promises.—But if he should refuse? I will lie at his feet, and not go away till he kicks me away.

When brother Cupido was at Gamtoo's River, a child was overheard praying thus: "Lord, I cannot say I am young, and have not much sin; for though I have not openly committed so much sin, yet sin is in my heart. Lord, my heart is hard, come with thy holy hammer and break it."

Brother Pretorius gave an exhortation at the cattle krall. Addressing the old people, he said, 'You see that old kine can give no more milk, and old oxen unfit for drawing are slaughtered. You are now old and useless, therefore fly to Christ, for death is near.' To the children he said, 'Do you not see fat calves and lambs, that might be expected to live long, are suddenly slaughtered; and how many children are called away by death, before they expected it?'

Nov. 18.—Lord's Day. The church was crowded with people, who were in general much affected. Brother Read preached from Mark x. 14—16., and baptized 12 people. Almost all the people in the settlement made procession, singing from house to house, till bell-ringing in the evening, and thus they proceeded to church. O what a blessed day has this been, not only to the people, but to the Missionaries too.

Mr. Read, on his journey from Cape Town to Bethelsdorp, called at Zuurbrak. When he took his leave, such was the affection of the people, that when he left the town, he was accompanied by nearly half of the inhabitants, whose voices, in singing hymns, rent the air. They accompanied him about two miles, and then returned.

They called at another place where the poor people were most earnestly desirous of hearing the word. A poor old slave woman intreated us to stay the night, which we were unwilling to do, as we wished to go home. She said, 'O, Sir, have you no compassion for our poor souls, so as to sacrifice a few hours for us. If Jesus were here, would he not hear our petition? It is not so much for myself, for I know Christ; but my poor friends are still blind—who knows what one word may do? Perhaps they may die before you come again. We are poor slaves; we cannot go to the word; must we therefore be lost? This language softened our hearts, and we resolved to stay, at least till midnight. After the boors had supped, all the people flocked to hear, and about midnight we departed.

Increase of the Church at Bethelsdorp.

"The work of conversion goes on rapidly. We can say that almost every day souls are added to us. We trust in Christ that our enemies are curbed, and that the work spreads. YESTERDAY ABOUT TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY WERE SITTING AROUND THE TABLE OF THE LORD—many, very many, with tears streaming down their cheeks, while receiving the emblems of Christ's body and blood.

"At such times I am led to take a retrospective glance to the period when I resided at Hackney, and the circumstances in which we found this people, and am constrained to adore Him who has wrought such wonders, and called us to behold them.

Bibles wanted.

"Our school flourishes exceedingly, and I suppose we have at least 100 persons in want of Bibles, besides constant demands from farmers, &c.

"It would afford great satisfaction to the members of the Missionary and Bible Societies to hear a number of Hottentot children reading the Bible as well as I can, who ten months ago did not know the A, B, C. At present they cannot be supplied with Bibles to read to their aged parents at home.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Messer.

Last week an Auxiliary Missionary Society was established here, entitled the Bethelsdorp Auxiliary Missionary Society, of which brother Read is treasurer, and I am secretary. There are 452 subscribers. The money subscribed amounts, among our people alone, already to 938 rix-dollars. When this money will be collected, Bethelsdorp will no longer be any expence to the Missionary Society.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Read.

"We have now numbers of young men, who, we hope, will hereafter become burning and shining lights. Two of these already manage the spelling and reading of our whole school, and also of writing in sand. We have eight who itinerate. Two are going out to-day to the farmers' places, with the Bible under their arms, and nothing but a carross (a sheep skin) on their backs. In this way they can get better access to their countrymen among the boors. I hope the Lord may make a selection, and send them out with power from on high."

Extracts from the Journal of Mr. Schmelen, containing an Account of the remarkable Success of his Mission in Great Namaqualand.

Mr. Schmelen, late Missionary in Little Namaqualand, after having, at the desire of Mr. Campbell, visited and examined the mouth of the Orange River, and explored Great Namaqualand beyond the Orange River, and part of the Damara Country, returned to Klip Fountain in Great Namaqualand, about two days journey beyond the Great or Orange River, where, at the earnest solicitation of the natives, has been established a new Missionary Station, in which God has remarkably blessed his labours, as will appear by the following extracts from his journal which has lately been received.

July 21, 1814.—On our arrival at Klip Fountain we found the men concealing themselves behind rocks, and the women fled unto the mountains because they had reason to dread an attack from Africaner. Only a few remained by the fountain. Our approach alarmed them, but when they knew who we were, they came to us rejoicing like men just delivered from the jaws of death.

22.—On conversing with the people respecting Africaner, I resolved to visit his krall, to endeavour to persuade him to live in peace with his neighbours; on which I sent several persons to discover where he was to be found.

25.—As the place where Africaner at present is has not been discovered, I resolved to go myself, accompanied by some of the people, but none of them would consent tilt I wrote a certificate, that, should I be killed, I considered them my friends; and that I was going to Africaner, and should I lose my life it was likely to be by him.

26.—Early in the morning we commenced our journey. At moon met several people from the krall where Africaner had been, which place he had left two days before. They informed us that he had no powder. On hearing this, the people who accompanied me were anxious to attack him, and force him to give up the cattle he had taken from them; but having brought no provisions with me, and my horse being unable to carry me any farther, I was obliged to return during the night.

27.—Fleremius, the chief, and all the people in his krall, besought me not to forsake them. They held me, and said they would not suffer me to go away, but keep my oxen, waggon, and myself. I told them I wished to begin a mission at the mouth of the Great River, near the sea, that goods might come to the Missionaries by water, which would prevent the Missionaries leaving their statio is. To which they replied, that another teacher might be sent there, and I must not leave them, else they should be like sheep without a shepherd. So I was obliged to remain with them, which filled their hearts with gratitude, and they took my waggon to the Great River, to bring my goods.

Aug. 3.—Commenced a school; near 40 children attended.

14.—Discoursed to the people from Matt. xxiv. 30, 31. The word of God seemed to be attended with power and might. Most of the people are greatly concerned to have an interest in the salvation of Christ. At whatever time I awake in the night, I hear some of them at prayer in the field, and most of them, morning and evening, when they leave the public meeting, retire into the field to pray. In the evenings they meet in each other's houses, where they unite in praise and prayer.

25.—Most of my hearers were this morning drowned in tears. Several were carried home, being unable to walk. My hands are full of work.—There are about 140 children in my school every day. Our meetings for worship are continually crowded.

29.—Began a writing-school to-day. We proceed in the following manner: four or five children bring a sheep-skin, which is made smooth; on this they spread fine sand, which I have prepared for the purpose. This serves instead of paper. I cut a reed into the shape of a pen, with which they are to write; on each skin I write that which they are to copy, A. B, C, &c. and go from one skin to another, to point out how they are to hold the pen, draw the lines, and write the letters.

Sep. 14.—My interpreter had a deep sense of what was said, and was so much affected, that he could interpret no more, but went out weeping and crying. I went on, setting before them the love and righteousness of our Saviour, which appeared to melt them down before him as at his footstool. My wife and another woman read the 13th chapter of Isaiah in the school, on which I made some remarks, which caused the tears of many to flow freely. A Namaqua from a little distance told me he had heard the word of God formerly with one ear, and now, said he, I have no rest, but must come to hear it again with both ears, that it may be brought nearer to my heart.

Three bushmen visited us from the neighbourhood of Africaner's krall, with whom I wished to send a letter, but they would not take it.

Fxtract of a Letter from Mr. Ebner.

Who could have imagined, that the late persecutor of the Christian congregation at the Warm Bath, should so suddenly be changed;—that the furious Africaner would be turned from a devouring lion, into a gentle lamb! The prayer of the children of God seem to have been heard, and Mr. B—'s wish fulfilled.—"May the Lord change his heart, that, like Saul of Tarsus, instead of being a persecutor, he may become a promoter of the cause of Christ!" This really now appears to be the case; for he is very zealous indeed in reading the word of God, and conversing thereon with the people.'

Mr. Ebner then proceeds to relate the circumstances of his removal to this place, and the commencement of his Missionary labours, with their apparent success. Some of the children, he says, begin to seek the Lord by prayer. He also mentions, that a man from the Damara country had called upon him, who, with great simplicity, related his experience.

On the 23d of July, he baptized the first fruits of his Mission in this place; three men and five women. Two of the former are the sons of the chief, Africaner. 'May the Lord confirm, preserve, and strengthen them.'

On the 24th of September, he conversed with Africaner on the state of his soul. He freely acknowledged his sin with much solemnity; and especially his having been a murderer; but expressed his hope in Christ, and that he would hereafter preserve him from sin.

The following is an authentic account of two ships which were preserved from capture in consequence of a Missionary box on board, in a letter to the Editors of the Evangelical Magazine.

On board the brig Brothers, Cardiff Roads, May 17, 1814.

Gentlemen—Looking over your valuable Magazine for last March, I find an anecdote inserted respecting and American captain. I took notice of it a few days afterwards, but omitted writing, expecting you would probably have information from another quarter—I mean from Captain Davis himself.

Before I begin the narrative, I beg to inform you that I had it from Captain W. Davis's own mouth. I have been often in his cabin, but he would never let me leave it without a gentle hint to help the missionary box, which I often did, by throwing a shilling into it. He had it hung up conspicuously in the cabin, with the words Missionary Box painted on it. Himself cast in 6d., the mate 3d., and the men 1d. each every Monday morning throughout the year. This Captain Davis told me, and I am persuaded he is a man to be relied on. He is a member of the Calvinistic Methodists in Cardigan, but I think he is now in Portugal. Had I thought he was in England, I should have left it to himself to write. As I was an arbitrator on board his ship immediately after the capture, a great deal of the following could not but come under my own knowledge.

Narrative of the Brig Eliza, of Cardigan.

On the 24th of July 1814, the brig Eliza, W. Davis, master, loaded with oats, for London; the brig Mary, of Waterford, William Hunt, master; the brig Irish Miner, of Cardigan, Thomas Nicholàs, master, both the last loaded with butter and bacon. The three brigs sailed together from Limerick, in Ireland, on the above day, all bound for London. Early on the 26th they fell in with the American armed ship of war, Whig, of 18 guns and 127 men, commanded by James Clark, Esq.—they were then in the 50th degree of north latitude, and longitude 10 degrees west, off the south coast of Ireland. Captain Clark went first on board the Mary of Waterford, and after examining his prize, he gave orders to take out 100 casks of butter, and 20 tierces of pork and beef, for the supply of the Whig, and then to set fire to the Mary, all which was instantly complied with. After seeing her in a blaze, Captain Clark went in his boat on board the brig Eliza, when he found ber loaded with a cargo of no use to him; he gave orders immediately to set fire to her, and when the preparations were making to carry the said order into execution, which would not take three minutes time, Captain Clark accidentally went below into the cabin, where Captain Davis was overwhelmed with trouble, bundling up his clothes to follow his men, who by this time had been put in chains on board the Whig. After Captain Clark observed all about the Cabin, and took away a heap of charts, and nautical and religious books, he cast his eye on the Missionary Box, and asked what it meant. Captain Davis consequently told him the whole: he paused a little, with one end of his stick on the little box; and when he broke silence "Captain, we Americans are not in war with you, nor with the like of you, but with your cursed government (please to excuse the expression), we are at war. as your cargo belongs to your government, I will utterly destroy it, but neither you nor your vessel will 1 by any means hurt." With that he ordered 50 of his men to come on board, which they immediately did, and threw 637 sacks of corn overboard into the sea, and threw salt water over what was left for ballast, so as utterly to spoil it; and when Captain Clark understood by the register of the Irish Miner that part of her belonged to Captain Davis, of the Eliza, he spared her altogether, and cargo; so I look upon it, that the Missionary Box actually saved two ships and one cargo. The above, I assure you, is altogether authentic.

I am, Gentlemen, with respect, your's truly,

THOMAS PROPERT, Master of the Brig Brothers, of Pembroke.

 At parting, all that Captain C. wanted of Captain Davis was, should he be unfortunately taken by an English man-of-war, for Captain D. to come and see him, with 50 guineas in his pocket for each vessel, which I am sure he would gladly do, as he promised. The Underwriters at Lloyd's made Davis a present of 25 guineas, with abundant thanks, for saving at least £22,000!!!

POSTSCRIPT, No. I.

MALACCA.

MR. MILNE, in a letter dated 30th December 1815, after expressing the pleasure he derived from the Directors' letter of March 1815, in which they had stated their satisfaction with his conduct, says,

"With regard to the state of the mission here, I have written fully in my journal, (sent by the Moffat, Captain Richardson, via Bombay.) At present, I shall only say, through the goodness of God, we are all in good health. The school I mentioned in my last, promises well; 14 boys are now in it. The (Chinese Magazines), specimens of which are inclosed, have been in circulation for five mouths. Frequent communications concerning the state of his health, and progress with the Dictionary, have been received from Mr. Morrison. According to his wish, I have begun a translation of Dr. Watts's 1st and 2d Catechism, which, if health continue, will soon be printed."

Mr. Milne then mentions several reasons for taking a journey to Penang, for the more effectual distribution of the Chinese Scriptures and Tracts.

Mr. Milne afterwards expresses his sentiments concerning the difference of expense, &c. between printing the Chinese with moveable types and stereotyped blocks. "I am," says he, "decidedly of opinion, that for large and standard works, the advantage is every way (speed excepted) in favour of the blocks. to the beauty of the impression, which is certainly the very least consideration, the advantage is in favour of the blocks. Chinese printing with moveable types, even with regularly cast types, that I have yet seen, looks to be the work of foreigners, and possesses not that freedom which the Chinese method has. To the Chinese, books printed with moveable types have a certain awkward stiffness in their appearance. I cannot, however, positively say that an improvement may not in future be made in this respect: every attempt to improve is praise-worthy, and may in some way or other be useful.

"The specimens you sent me, in the 'Memoir of Translations,' I mean the specimens cut in wood, are very bad indeed; and represented as occupying a vast space on the page. The public would have been furnished with much surer data, had a specimen of the best and neatest the Chinese can cut, been given, rather than placing a specimen of the worst, in competition with the best metal types then cast, and then calling on the public to look at the amazing difference, but probably no good type-cutters were at hand. More caution, however, in this case was necessary, in discussing the merits of the different modes.

Mr. Milne then states his opinion, that as to progressive improvement and correctness, the advantage preponderates in favour of the present Chinese mode of printing; but we have not room for his arguments on this head. With respect to cheapness, he is also of opinion that the blocks have the preference; and says, the expense of our last Duodecimo Testament * will no doubt fully satisfy you and the public on this head."

^{*} About 2s. 6d. bound in the Chinese manner. The first edition, royal octave, fine paper, printed in the manner of the Chinese Classics, was of course more expensive.

POSTSCRIPT, No. 11.

June 26, 1816.

A Letter was received this day from Mr. W. P. Crook, dated Sydney, New South Wales, November 2, 1815, from which the following important information is extracted:—

"I have just received a packet from Otaheite, the contents of which are of the most satisfactory and delightful nature. If the question now be asked, "Hath a nation changed their gods?" I think before you receive this, it may be answered, Yes.* The Taheitan nation hath changed their false gods for Jehovah the true God. The majority of the people of Eimeo, near a thousand, have renounced idols, and professed themselves the worshippers of the true God; and they are daily increasing. Brother Davies has 660 in his school, whom he catechises and instructs. Dear man, he is ready to sink under his labours. I long to be with him; as he and all his brethren say, I may be immediately useful.† Brother Scott was taken to his eternal rest in February last, leaving a young wife and two children. The brethren Davies and Nott, amidst their active labours, are frequently very ill; yet, blessed be God, the gospel flourishes and gains ground rapidly.

"I am called upon for this letter, therefore must conclude, and have only time to add, that the triumphs of the gospel in Eimeo will be considered as the most glorious and marvellous that have been witnessed for many ages.—Priests publicly burning their gods—chiefs destroying their morais—pulling down their sacred altars, and cooking their victuals with the materials—men and women eating together!—and group after group flocking to the Missionaries, and giving themselves to the Lord. These triumphs of the gospel will be proclaimed through the world, and our Immanuel will be praised by thousands and tens of thousands for what he has done in Eimeo."

^{*} This refers to letters from the Missionaries, not yet received.

i Orders were sent out, some months ago, to Mr. Crook to proceed to the Society Islands to assist the Missionaries. Four additional labourers and their wives are also on their passage to Eimeo for the same purpose.

^{‡&}quot; The women are not permitted to eat with the men, nor may they drink out of the same cup."—Missionary Voyage, p. 361.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

COMPENDIOUS VIEW.

THIS Society, composed of Christians of various denominations, was established in the year 1795, for the sole purpose of propagating the Gospel in Heathen, and other unenlightened countries. It was adopted, as "a Fundamental Principle of the Society, not to send Presbyterianism, Independency, Episcopacy, or any other form of Church order and government (about which there may be difference of opinion among serious persons) but the glorious Gospel of the blessed God, to the Heathen"—and on this liberal principle the Society has continued to act for twenty years. It may, therefore, hope for the support of candid Christians of every class. The Society has been so much succeeded by the blessing of God and the liberality of the public, that about seventy or eighty Missionaries, including several converted Heathens, are now employed, in about forty different places, in preaching the Gospel, in translating the Scriptures into several languages, and in keeping schools for the children of the natives. The following affords a compendious view of the operations of the Society.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND,

NEWFOUNDLAND, Sr. John's,

Many benevolent persons, desirous of promoting the welfare of the Missionary Society, have bequeathed various sums of money thereto, by their last Wills; but by omitting to point out the particular Society for which they intended them, or by a loose or unguarded form of Bequest, considerable difficulties have arisen, and the Institution has been in danger of losing some of the proposed Legacies. To prevent this in future, the Directors of the Missionary Society beg leave to recommend the following

Form of a Bequest.

"Item. I do hereby give and bequeath unto the Treasurer for the time being, of a certain voluntary Society, formed in London in the year 1795, entitled The Missionary Society, the sum of pounds, of lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, current in Great Britain, to be paid within months next after my decease, out of such part only of my personal estate as shall not consist of chattels real, upon trust to be applied towards the carrying on the purposes of the said Society: and I do hereby direct and declare, That the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society, for the said Legacy, shall be a sufficient discharge to my executors for the same."

MISSIONARY SOCIETY,

ESTABLISHED IN 1795.

PLAN.

- I. THE NAME.—THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.
- II. THE OBJECT.—The sole object is to spread the knowledge of Christ among heathen and other unenlightened nations.
- III. THE Members.—Persons subscribing one guinca, or more, annually—every benefactor making a donation of ten pounds—one of the executors, on the payment of a legacy amounting to fifty pounds, or upwards; and Ministers, or other representatives of congregations in the country, which subscribe or collect for the use of the Society five pounds annually.
- IV. General Meetings.—To be held annually in London on the second Wednesday of May, and oftener if necessary, to choose a Treasurer, Directors, Secretary, and Collectors, and to receive reports, audit accounts, and deliberate on what further steps may best promote the object of the Society. At every such meeting, one sermon, or more, shall be preached by one or more of the associated Ministers, and notice given, as is usual on such occasions. The President for the day shall open and conclude the meeting with prayer, and sign the minutes of the proceedings. All matters proposed, shall be determined by the majority of the members present.
- V. The Direction.—To consist of as many Directors, annually chosen out of its members, as circumstances may require. At the first meeting twenty-five shall be elected, with power to associate with themselves such an additional number as may be judged by them expedient, when the extent of the Society is ascertained. Three-fifths, and no more, of these Directors shall reside in or near London; where all monthly meetings shall be held for transacting the business of the Society. Not less than seven shall constitute a board. For greater facility and expedition, they may subdivide into committees, for managing the funds, conducting the correspondence, making reports, examining Missionaries, directing the missions, &c.; but no act of these committees shall be valid till ratified at a monthly meeting. No expenditure exceeding £100 shall be made without consulting all the Directors, or £500 without calling a general meeting of the subscribers. Annual subscribers of £10 or upwards, and benefactors of £100 or more, may attend, if they please, with the Directors, at any of the monthly meetings. On any emergency the Directors shall call a general meeting of the Society, to whom their arrangements shall be submitted; nor shall they enter upon a new mission till they obtain the general concurrence.

VI. THE FUNDS—Arising from donations, legacies, subscriptions, collections, &c. shall be lodged, as soon as collected, in the hands of the Treasurer. The Directors shall place in the public funds all monies so paid, whenever they exceed £300, until they are required for the use of the mission; excepting it appears to them prejudicial to the interests of the Society.

VII. SALARIES.—The Secretary shall receive such a salary as the Directors may appoint; but the Directors themselves shall transact the business of the Society without any emolument.

At the annual meeting, held the 14th of May, 1812,

Resolved, That those Ministers in the country who are annual subscribers, or whose congregations send an annual collection to the Society; and all presidents, or principal officers, of country auxiliary Societies, who may be in London occasionally, shall be Directors pro tempore, and be entitled to meet and vote with the Directors.

At the annual meeting, held the 12th of May, 1814,

Resolved, That a copy of the Fundamental Principle, adopted at the first annual meeting in May, 1796, be printed at the end of the Plan.

FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLE.

As the union of God's people of various denominations, in carrying on this great work, is a most desirable object; so to prevent, if possible, any cause of future dissension, it is declared to be a fundamental principle of the Missionary Society, that our design is not to send Presbyterianism, Independency, Episcopacy, or any other form of Church order and government (about which there may be difference of opinion among serious persons), but the glorious Gospel of the blessed God, to the Heathen; and that it shall be left (as it ought to be left) to the minds of the persons whom God may call into the fellowship of his Son from among them, to assume for themselves such form of Church government as to them shall appear most agreeable to the Word of God.
